Police Raid Saloon.

Baker, Jan. 5.—A police raid on the Nugget saloon at 4 o'clock this morning resulted in the arrest of Frank Weir, the proprietor, on a charge of permitting women in his saloon, and of Pearl Naughton, Viola Lee, D. Davis and Mrs. Grace Davis on charges of disorderly conduct. The complaints were all made by Chief of Police Ed. Jackson.

Mr. Weir in municipal court today pleaded guilty and was fined $100 which he paid. The Naughton and Lee women each forfeited $10 bail and Mr. and Mrs. Davis each pleaded guilty, were fined $25 apiece and the fines suspended pending good behavior.

Patrolman Brennan noticed a light in the saloon on Center street at 4 o'clock this morning and went in, only to be met with abuse and rough language. He at once called Chief Jackson and together they went to the saloon and arrested the quintet. The Naughton and Lee women are said to have come in on the late train last night.

Sumner Consecrated.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Dean Walter Taylor Sumner, long prominent in social welfare work in Chicago and chairman of the vice commission whose work attracted national attention a few years ago, was today consecrated bishop of Oregon with impressive ceremonies at the Catholic of Saint Peter and Saint Paul.

Many dignitaries of the Episcopal church assisted in the services, which were in charge of the Rev. C. H. Young of Chicago. The new bishop will leave in a few weeks for Portland, Ore. Among the out-of-town churchmen participating in the ceremony were Rt. Rev. Dr. W. A. Leonard, bishop of Ohio; Rt. Rev. Dr. J. H. White of Michigan City, Ind.; Rt. Rev. Dr. T. N. Morrison, bishop of Iowa; Rt. Rev. Dr. T. I. Reese, bishop coadjutor of southern Ohio;

the Very Rev. T. M. Ramsey, Portland, Ore.

NEW SURVEYOR HOME.

L. D. Howland Will Leave Tonight for Portland on Business.

After spending the holidays in Walla Walla with relatives, L. D. Howland returned last evening to assume his office as county surveyor, and today filed his bond for $5,000. Tonight he leaves for Portland to attend the irrigation congress in the capacity of assistant water superintendent for this second district.

George T. Cochran, the superintendent, may not be able to attend the congress, due to the death of his uncle, George Ruckman.

County Commissioners in Session.

The county commissioners are in session today, the newly appointed member, W. J. Townley, of Union, being present for his first session. The only business to come before the board today is the considering of bills against the county, other matters, coming up tomorrow.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends who so kindly remembered us on our fiftieth wedding anniversary on January 1, 1915, we wish to return our sincere and grateful thanks. May the Giver of all good abundantly reward you for your kindness to us, as he alone can.

MR. and MRS. O. S. ALLEN.
