THE DYNAMO.

The dynamo hums like a droning bee
As it feeds its brushes lazily.
For it spins so fast that it seems quite still.
And little we deem that it turns
a mill.
Drives on the trolleys and lights
a town.
Whisking its people up and down.
In their great hotels and castles
of trade.
Or that out on the waves in the
storm's trade
It cheers the crew of a wounded
ship
And sends it aid on a wireless tip.
But it does all this while all we see
Is the dynamo there, like a droning bee.
Feeding its brushes lazily.

What He Left.

Residing in a little village is a lawyer who is famous for drawing wills. In which branch of business he has long enjoyed a monopoly of the country for miles around.
A few months since a wealthy man died. There was much speculation as to the value of the property, and the town gossip set about to find out the facts. He hunted up the lawyer, and, after a few preliminary remarks about the deceased, he said rather bluntly: "I suppose you made Brown's will?"
"Yes."
"Then you probably know how much he left. Would you mind telling me?"
"Not at all," the lawyer answered, as he resumed his writing. "He left everything he had."

Did His Share.

The lecturer raised his voice with emphatic confidence.
"It is my belief, and I venture to assert it," he declared, "that there isn't a man in this audience who has ever done anything to prevent the destruction of our vast forests."
A rather timid, henpecked looking man quietly arose in the rear of the hall and said:
"I—er—I've shot woodpeckers!"—Everybody's.

An Idyl.

"He is my ideal and I'm his ideal," said the girl.
"And your love affair?"
"Is an idyl."
"And your fiance?"
"He's idle, according to papa."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Constipation and Indigestion.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Obtainable everywhere. —Adv.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.
