FLOUR PRICE STARTS WORRY

MANY LAY IN SUPPLIES AT THE PRESENT FIGURE.

Wheat Going Skyward, Flour Prices Must Follow Suit.

LOCAL FLOUR UP.

All La Grande brands of flour went up five cents on the sack today.

Not the least worry that Mrs. Housewives has, is to cogitate about the prospective price of flour. With wheat at $1.50 and in demand, the price of flour has of course gone upwards, but that the next month or two will find the price soaring a great deal higher, is feared. The consumption of flour will likely be reduced should the price of the food-stuff goes much higher. Many are laying in supplies at the present price, fearing a stiff advance shortly.

HIGH MARKS IN BOWLING

TEAM SCORE OF 2902 MADE ON CLUB ALLEYS.

Pendleton Man Shoots 298 in One Game, 712 in Three.

Scott	203	222	189	594
Crowe	180	212	179	569
Bristow	180	205	148	533
Walden	243	182	218	643
Williams	186	208	167	561

Total .....992 1029 881 2902
The above score was rolled on the Club alleys Tuesday evening against a scrub team, by the team who will probably represent La Grande in the coming match with Pendleton next Tuesday evening. This shows that the boys are "rolling some" and should give Pendleton an awful run in the coming match.

However, while the La Grande team was showing this fine form—which, if duplicated in the Northwest bowling tournament would win nine times out of 10—the Pendleton bowlers were not loafing. The highest single score for one game ever rolled in Pendleton was set Tuesday evening, Fred Book rolled 298 pins. In three games he rolled 712.

Cove, Jan. 7.—(Special.)—There was a game of basket ball in the Macabee hall, Thursday night, between Haines and Cove. The score was 8 to 48 in favor of Cove. Friday night Joseph played Cove and the score was 22 to 41 in favor of Cove.

"Arthur Hallgarth reports that the South Elgin game refuge of Union county is one of the best refuges for game birds in the state, says the current issue of the Oregon Sportsman." It then goes on to say: "It is five miles long and about thirteen miles in circumference. It is surrounded by a county road, but has no cross-road running through it. It is well stocked with Chinese pheasants and also ruffed grouse or native pheasants. Blue grouse are quite abundant, and it also contains about two hundred prairie chickens. This refuge contains California or little blue quail and some bobwhite quail. Twenty-four Hungarian partridges were liberated on this refuge last spring and they are doing well. Several species of ducks are nesting along the river and Wilson or jacksnipe are plentiful.

WHITE FIGHTS DRAW WITH SHUGRUE

Charley White, the brilliant young Hebrew lightweight of Chicago, is now in line for a championship fight with Freddie Welsh for the world's title. His fight with Young Shugrue, the New York boy, at Madison Square Garden, proved to all those who saw it that he is of championship calibre.

Shugrue had beaten Welsh in New York a few weeks ago, and White has had ten-round bouts with both Welsh and Willie Ritchie, former American lightweight champion, in which he gave them hard fights. His manager claimed that he beat both men in these contests, but impartial observers could not see them that way. Were he to meet the present lightweight champion of the world over a twenty-round course he might be able to land his powerful left hook and thereby win the championship of the world.

White was born in Liverpool, England, March 25, 1891, his parents having moved there from Russia. His real name is Ankovitz, but he did not like that as a fighting name, so he adopted the name of the old Chicago lightweight, who was among the best fifteen years ago.

White reported that he has a flock of pheasants on his farm with two pure white ones among them. When he first saw them, he thought they were leghorn chickens, but they flew away with the rest of the flock and were good fliers."

SAID OF READING.

In science read by preference the newest works; in literature the oldest. The classic literature is always modern.—Bulwer-Lytton.

What a wonderful, what an almost magical boon, a writer of great genius confers upon us when we read him intelligently. As he proceeds from point to point in his argument or narrative we seem to be taken up by him and carried from hilltop to hilltop, where, through an atmosphere of life, we survey a glorious region of thought, looking freely, far and wide, above and below, and gazing in admiration upon all the beauty and grandeur of the scene.—Mapp.

All accounts owing to the Geo. A. Anderson company are now in the hands of M. V. Merford for collection, and parties owing the company can pay their accounts at the old location of the company in the Gardiner building.—Adv. 1 2 t.
