Lumberman Visits Holdings.

J. H. Fetty, the operating head of the East Oregon lumber company, was in the county several days last week, familiarizing himself with the company's property, says the Enterprise Record-Chief. He returned on Saturday to Kansas City, but will be back here before spring opens, when work will be resumed on laying track, and on construction of the plant.

This was not Mr. Fetty's first visit to the county, as he came here a few years ago with Duval Jackson to look over the latter's timber holdings since transferred to the East Oregon company. At that time both men were in Enterprise, but Mr. Fetty did not go over the route of the railroad from this city to the north end.

He made this trip during his recent visit, and was thoroughly pleased with the whole plan and the construction work done to date. He noted that a real railroad was in the building, not merely a logging road, the uniform easy grades were found admirable, and the low degree of all the curves. The mill site also was found well adapted to the company's needs.

At the annual meeting of the company, to be held in Kansas City, January 12, Mr. Fetty will be elected president and Mr. Jackson will be chosen vice-president. The two men will exchange offices. Mr. Jackson is now president and Mr. Fetty is vice-president. Mr. Fetty will be in charge of operations of the company's physical properties and Mr. Jackson, as chairman of the board of directors, will remain at the head of its financial affairs.

No other changes will be made. All the present stockholders retain their interest.

The change is merely the evolution of the plans Mr. Jackson had from the first. He has had ample experience in financing and other branches of the lumber industry, but has had no experience operating. From the first he intended a practical man should have charge of the operating end. As the company has passed through the first stages of the construction work, and as future activity of this kind dovetails closely into actual operation, the time had come for the executive of this branch to be chosen and to take charge.

Mr. Fetty comes as an ideal man

The accounts of the Geo. A. Anderson company are due and payable to M. V. Mefford who has offices in the former location of the company in the Gardiner building.—Adv. 1 2 tf.

for the position. For some years he has been vice-president and general manager of the Central Coal & Coke company, a corporation capitalized at $7,500,000, and one of the most extensive operators in the southern yellow pine field. He has had wide experience in every branch of the lumber industry. He has built and equipped many large sawmills, and has been engaged in this right up to the present day. Thus he is familiar with the very latest ideas in mill arrangements, machinery and equipment. The company and the county are most fortunate in having this—the largest industry of the county—under the direction of a man who has made good on so large a scale in the past.

DUTY OF THE CHURCH.

It is the duty of the church to make religion supreme. To leave the word of God and serve tables; to subordinate salvation to social service; to substitute philanthropy for piety; is a weakness of the flesh, a compromise with the world, a concession to the devil. This is the "passing of faith;" this is the "decadence of the ministry;" this is "materialism in the church." This is to give up, to surrender to the clamor of those who believe mistakenly that man can live by bread alone.

To make a church a religionless mixture of civil service reforms, debating societies, gymnasium contests, oyster suppers, ice cream festivals, stereopticon lectures, good advice, coal saving funds, sight singing classes, dancing schools, refined minstrel shows, reading circles and dramatic entertainments is certainly not to seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.—Rev. David M. Steele, Philadelphia.

Efficiency.

Life is but loss, and from it all He gains the most who takes the best;
Who looks for neither rise nor fall But loves his doing for its test.
James Gordon Stell, Prison Problems.
