

PIANO EXHIBIT BROUGHT HERE

PORTION OF 16TH ANNUAL EXHIBIT COMES.

President of Boise Eiler's Music House in Charge of Pianos.

A portion of the great 16th annual exhibit of Eiler's music house has been received here. E. F. Peffer, president of the Boise Eiler's Music house is in charge of the exhibit and the sale commences Wednesday.

Choice of Chickering anniversary baby grands, proven to be the finest of all costly American baby grand pianos included, world renowned auto-pianos, used in the foremost American homes, where every member of the family plays them delightfully and diligently, purchased by the United States government boards for the army and navy, recipient of more first awards and gold medals at international and competitive expositions than any other American made instrument ever received in the same length of time, are included in this big exhibit and also at greatly reduced prices.

Cunning little Bungalow player pianos, sweet toned styfish instruments. Two of the highest priced types. The famous style 90 are also included. You will instantly fall in love with these beautiful little player pianos, they will make their first appearance in La Grande at this piano exhibit. Chicago's proudest and now internationally famous, Kimball, in numerous designs and models and also at greatly reduced prices.

The ever popular Smith & Barnes professional service pianos and the new Smith & Barnes metal tubing, human touch player pianos with free music roll library included also at reduced prices.

We offer at this exhibit a modern 1915 style 88 note beautiful finished player piano for $386. This is 35 per cent less than the same instrument would be ordinarily sold by the dealer who sells an instrument only occasionally. Quick sales and many sales make our small prices possible for we can transact our business on the smallest possible living profits.

We offer at this exhibit the usual $300 piano, an instrument standing 4 feet, 9 inches high with double revolving lock board, three pedals, the orchestral upright grand tri-cord piano, good tone and in mahogany case for $185, and the plainer cases for only $145.

Surely this is the time to buy a piano. Such low prices can not be obtained again for the conditions that make these low prices possible can not be secured again.

Can Be Paid For When Convenient. On any of the instruments in this exhibit we will arrange terms of payment as may best suit the requirements of each individual purchaser. We will take payment for some of these pianos in one, two and three years.

Where our friends prefer to pay by the month we will arrange a very convenient installment plan. Will sell for $6 every month and the more elaborate instruments for $8 per month. Remember we sell on time payments accepting net cash sale prices.

See how easy it is to own a fine piano or player piano. Think how necessary it is to every home to enjoy the benefits of music. The grand world of musical enjoyment, musical education is open to all. The low prices and this exhibition are the open sesame. You are cordially invited to call and inspect this epoch making shipment. This exhibit is in the corner store of the new West-Jacobson building.

E. F. Peffer, President. The Boise Eilers Music House exhibit and sale closes at the end of ten days and by that time this stock must be sold out or will be shipped for exhibition purposes elsewhere.

Much Snow in Mountains.

Pendleton, Jan. 19.—There is much snow in the mountains, according to reports brought in to Pendleton. Ira Hughes, who has just returned from Meacham, reports about three feet at that place while Guy Hayes reports nearly four feet at Kamela. Most of the snow fell during the last few days last week when a general rain visited the valley. The snow in the mountains is causing general satisfaction inasmuch as the deficiency in precipitation had caused all streams to be unusually low and was threatening the industries which rely upon a generous water supply.

W O W OFFICERS PUT IN

CLERK FOR TEN YEARS, RECORD OF J. H. KEENEY.

Notes and News From Fraternal Organizations in the City.

Friday evening the Woodmen of the World, La Grande camp No. 169, installed officers for the ensuing year. One noteworthy feature of the installation was the retirement of J. H. Keeney as clerk. For 10 years he has held that position, and retires, having given the camp excellent service during a decade. D. M. Clark is his successor. The new officers as installed are:

C. C. J. A. Reed; A. L. O. L. McDowall; Banker, J. J. Murchison; Clerk, D. M. Clark; Escort, F. A. Hanson; Watchman, H. H. Dahlstrom; Sentry, C. E. Warren; Managers, Knutz, Kenneda and Warren.

Knights of Pythias members in La Grande are drilling diligently to send a big crowd to Enterprise next month when the district convention will be held there. The exact date has not been announced.

A special meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security will be held tomorrow for the purpose of initiating a large class.

The Moose lodge meets tonight with a big slate of business to transact and a good attendance is expected.

Next Thursday night the Woodmen of America will commence the drill for the fraternal degree team. This is the beginning of the campaign of perfect a drill team for the next state camp which will be held here. Contrary to past custom, the team members will not be selected for some time, instead, every member of the lodge will be taught the essentials of the work, and stiff competition to get a place on the team will be the rule.

Wood Preservation is Talked.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Methods of preserving woods so that they may be made resistant to rough usage and less combustible, was the principal proposition tackled by speakers at the opening session in the Congress hotel today by the American Wood Preservers Association.

The convention brought together street paving men, interested in experiments designed to make crossoted wrod block pavements more durable; railroad construction men, who wanted to hear of processes by which railroads ties might be made to last longer, and builders who were anxious to learn what progress has been made by chemists attempting to find a fire proofing process for wood.

Among the speakers at the three days session are: Clyde H. Teesdale, of the Forest Products Laboratory at the State University of Wisconsin; J. F. Hoxie, engineer of the Associated Factory Mutual Fire Insurance companies; Professor L. F. Shackell of the St. Louis School of Medicine; and F. J. Angier, superintendent of timber preservation on the B. & O. railroads.

"Fore!" At Palm Beach.

Palm Beach, Fla., Jan. 19.—The new year golf tournament opened here today with unusually large representation of golf cracks and a big gallery of tourists.

Eitor Charged With Treason.

Clairville, Iowa, Jan. 19.—Joseph Eitor, the noted industrial worker agitator, was arrested today charged with treason.

Manzie Campbell, above and Davie Smith comedians who will be seen here soon in Richard & Pringle's Minstrels.

Survey For Proposed Springs Road.

Rendleton, Jan. 19.—Word was received this afternoon by J. E. Montgomery, member of the committee of farmers investigating the feasibility of a hard surface from German Hall to Cold Springs landing, that Lyman Griswold, assistant state highway engineer, would arrive here Wednesday to undertake a preliminary survey so that an estimate of the cost can be made. It is also possible that Major Bowly, state highway engineer will come with Mr. Griswold. After the preliminary survey is made, the committee will call a mass meeting of farmers to decide whether or not a hard surfaced road can be built.

R. R. Co. Denies Charge.

That its engines did not cause the fire which destroyed the Emry & Geise livery barn in Hermiston will be the defense of the O. W. R. & N. Company in the suit brought by the National Insurance Co., the Sun Insurance Co. and Emry & Geise, according to the opening statement made this morning by the railroad attorneys when the case came up for trial. Taking of testimony was commenced this afternoon, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. Raley & Raley are representing the plaintiffs while the railroad company is being represented by Charles H. Carter and W. A. Robbin.

RIGHT MOTIVES.

In determining proper motives of conduct it is easy to perceive that the higher are more commendable than the lower and that even an act of justice and benevolence loses something of its charm when known to be inspired by the selfish desire of human applause. It was the gay poet of antiquity who said that concealed virtue differed little from sepulchred sluggishness. But this is a heathen sentiment, alien to reason and to truth. It is hoped that men will be honest, but from a higher motive than because honesty is the best policy. It is hoped that they will be humane, but for a nobler cause than the fame of humanity.—Charles Sumner

RIMED QUOTATIONS.

Soar not too high to fall, but stoop to rise; —Massinger.
We masters grow of all that we despise. —Crowley.
Oh, then, renounce that impious self esteem, —Beattie.
Itches have wings and grandeur is a dream. —Cowper.

Domestic Problem.

First Modern Parent—Aren't your two children something of a problem? Second Modern Parent—Yes, indeed! They go away to school for thirty-eight weeks, to camp for ten, and that leaves from whole weeks when I don't know where to send them.—Life

Sense of the Practical.

"The Romans had a strong sense of the beautiful," remarked the student. "Yes," replied Mrs. Metcalley, "but they wasn't practical. For instance, those Roman sandals was very pretty to look at, but they wasn't much good to read by."—Washington Star.
