FIRST PHOTOS OF LAWYER ROGERS, WOMAN WHO KILLED HER TWO BAMES, AND HER FORMER HUSBAND.

These are the first photographs of the leading characters in the strange tragedy of Lorlys Elton Rogers, the New York lawyer, and Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters (Rogers). This peculiar case has been in the newspapers for nearly three weeks and the country has been scoured for pictures of Mrs.

Walters and her husband without result until recently. Mrs. Walters was married to Arthur Walters some twelve years ago.

She was then Ida Sniffen. A divorce was obtained later, and she went to Suffern, N. Y. There Rogers, who had been married to an Alabama woman some twenty years ago, met her. He had then been divorced from the southern woman, but kept up his acquaintance with her. His acquaintance with Mrs. Walters resulted in the birth of two children, one about two years old and the other less than a year old at the time of the tragedy.

But prior to this Rogers had married Miss Catherine Giddings, sister of Professor Giddings of Columbia University, perhaps the best known man in that institution. Professor Giddings has, in fact, been mentioned several times as a mayoralty possibility in New York City. It was Rogers' custom to leave his downtown law office early in the day for the home of the woman who had divorced him. Then he went on further uptown to Mrs. Walters' home, where he remained until 8 or 9 o'clock. Later he went to the home where his wife lived on Riverside Drive. This pecular situation continued until Mrs. Walters, giving up hope of having Mrs. Rogers get a divorce so she might marry the lawyer, gave her two children poison and took some herself. She got well, but the children died, and now she must face charges by the grand jury of Essex county.

Bad Cold Quickly Broken Up.
 Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Geneva, N. Y., writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in the highest terms." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
