The Ladies' Guild of the Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. O. A. Reitan tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Reitan lives at 905 Lake street and extends a cordial invitation to all the members and friends of the society. The newly elected officers of the society will assume their duties for the first time since their election two weeks ago. These officers are Mrs. G. Maier, president; Mrs. Wm. Moore, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Hansen, secretary and Mrs. N. Nelson, treasurer. The ladies have started the year with a resolution of increased activity and usefulness to the church and the community and arrangements have been made to increase the interest and helpfulness of the meetings. Rev. Drahn has been asked to present the first of a series of papers on "religious-psychological studies."

THE WOMAN BEAUTIFUL.
 remains beautiful as a rule only when she avails herself of the most approved methods of retaining the freshness of her complexion. The right way to care for the skin is to feed it. San Tox Cold Cream is essentially a skin food and tissue builder. It is absorbed by the pores, removes impurities, quickens the circulation of the blood in the external tissues, rounds out the muscles and makes the skin firm and fair. It is invaluable also for development of the figure.

has been visiting in the city for several days, the guest of Mr and Mrs. C. C. McCormick, left this morning for Wallowa, where she will visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. A. Cook and son, left this morning for Portland where they will visit with relatives for several days.

A. L. Nehls, an attorney of Pittsburgh, Pa., is in the city this week on legal business.

Albert Geiser, mining operator of Baker county is a business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. M. McMurray went to Union this morning for a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Kelly.

Mrs. L. F. Evans and children left this morning for Parma, Idaho, where they will make their future home.

E. G. Jeffries, district manager of the W. O. W., who has been working in this part of the state in the interest of the order for several weeks past left this morning for his home in Pendleton.

Misses Clara Wilson, Effa Brownlee, Olga Jacobson and Anna Hawkins, who have been in the city the past four weeks on educational work left this morning for Pendleton, where they will continue their work.

Mrs. W. E. Murchison, of Walla Walla, who had been here attending the funeral of her father, E. D. Garn, at Imbler, returned to her home this morning. She will stop off at Pendleton for a visit with her sister, Mrs. D. A. Osborne.

J. R. Price went to Baker today with a carload of apples which he expects to dispose of through dealers in that city. This is the first of about eight cars from the Geo. Stoddard orchard which Mr. Price expects to dispose of in this way.

A. B. Davis and C. D. Huffman, Grange organizers, left this morning for Western Oregon points. They will visit Portland tomorrow and expect to drop in on the legislature at Salem on their way down to Grant's Pass where they go in the interest of the Grange work.

W. R. Holmes, cashier of the Iowa National bank and Jay H. Dobbin one of Wallowa county's biggest sheep men and president of the Wool Growers Warehouse company at Enterprise, returned to their home this morning after spending a couple of days in this city on business matters.

O. E. Goraline, one of Wallowa county's big livestock men was in the city this morning on his way back from the Portland markets where he had been with a shipment of hogs. Mr. Goraline found the hog market a little bit off on this trip but even at that, he says, price of pork is too high from the consumer's point of view.
