"CHEAP PIANOS"

If you wish to buy cheap pianos, with the future trouble and expense that always follow, Richey Piano House will sell you a piano for $145, or even less, that might sell to some unsuspecting customer at a fictitious price of $300.00. We are a home institution and would at least tell you what you were buying, as we are here to stay, and will have you to face after goods are tested out.

Do not employ "Hurry Up Methods" as you can always buy at the so-called cheap prices.

No calls from other towns, as we do not hawk our goods from town to town, the old expensive and antiquated method of selling, long since abandoned by houses of repute.

No ten days' stand, here to stay with as good a line of goods, with prices as low as the lowest. Call before falling for alluring "Headlines" and statements.
