NEW JUDGE BILL UP
Understood that Wallowa County May Get Own Circuit Judge

Salem, Feb. 16.—One of the new bills introduced in the Senate Monday was one (S. B. 228 by Kiddle) providing for an additional circuit judge for the tenth judicial district comprising of Union and Wallowa counties. This bill is understood to have been introduced at the request of the bar of Wallowa county after it had been determined that the judiciary bill abolishing the office of county judge and combining the duties of both offices in the circuit court will not be passed. Union county lawyers as a rule have heretofore generally favored a separate judge for Wallowa county.

If the bill should be passed, a new judge will be appointed from Wallowa county and he will also be competent to hold court in Union county when not occupied in Wallowa county. Judges Knowles will also be judge in Wallowa county, if necessary. The bill is understood to provide a less salary for the Wallowa judge than is now paid other judges.
