Notice to Public.

Portland, Feb. 20.—(To the Editor)—It has come to me from several localities in Eastern Oregon that one man, Charles Paul, is representing himself as a special agent and speaker for the Farmers Union. I wish to say to the public that this man is in no way connected with the Farmers' Union, and so far as I can learn has never been asked to speak by members or officers of the Farmers' Union, but that he pushes himself upon the public as a speaker for the Farmers' Union.

F. A. SIKES, State Secretary.

To Discuss Neutrality.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—America's neutrality in the present war will be discussed by Charlemagne Tower, ex-United States Ambassador to Germany, who will be the principal speaker tonight at the annual dinner of the alumni of the University of Pennsylvania at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel. Other speakers during the evening, will be Governor Brumbaugh, Murdoch and T. Lane Bean.

Thaw Trial Tomorrow.

New York, Feb. 22.—Harry Thaw will be brought to trial before Justice Weeks in the supreme court tomorrow on the charge of conspiracy in his escape from Matteawan.

Deputy Attorney General Kennedy will move for the trial of all of the defendants together with Thaw, when the case comes up for hearing. Those indicted for conspiracy with him are Richard J. Butler, Eugene Duffy, Tom

SPRING WASH GOODS

While the weather does not have all of the appearances of Spring, yet we begin to look for warmer days and sunshine, which will soon be here. Now is an opportune time for our housewives and mothers to buy their Spring Wash Goods and other merchandise they are going to need to get their Spring sewing done up before the warm pleasant days come when they will want to be out of doors more.
