Every One His Own Lawyer In Newest Court

Chicago, Mar. 12.—Every woman her own portia and every man his own tribune, and this in a court where red tape is unknown and before a Judge whose chief study is to hasten justice. For the realization of these Municipal Chief Justice Harry Olson has established Chicago's first cut-price, small-claim court.

Demurrers will be unknown. No claim over $35 will be allowed. Petitions for a suit demanding payments of debts are in "the simple language of the plain people."

Court costs are only $3. The working of the court is so plain that Chicago already is calling it the "poor man's court."
