MARSHAL SELLS RESIDENCE
Expects to Move to La Grande Within a Few Days.

J. C. Christiansen, well known former chief of police of Elgin has traded his residence property in this city to L. A. Stoop for residence property in La Grande and will move to that city in a few days.

The residence secured by Mr. Christiansen in La Grande is modern and is situated on W avenue and North Fir St. He and his family are now engaged in packing their household effects and expect to be ready to move by the later part of this week or the fore part of next. They will ship their goods to La Grande and then go to Portland, where they will visit a few weeks with their son, William.

Mr. Stoop and family will move into the Christiansen residence as soon as it is vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen have a host of friends in Elgin who regret their decision to move from here. Mr. Christiansen is well known over this section of the state through his work as peace officer of Elgin, in which capacity he has served the greater portion of 13 years, and when not filling that position he was serving either as constable or special deputy sheriff. His record for persistency in enforcing the laws has been good and he has served Elgin well, not only as an officer but as a citizen.
