NEW ROAD IS HALF FINISHED

CREW AT WORK ON EAST OREGON LINE.

News of Various Descriptions from Enterprise Vicinity.

(Enterprise Record-Chiefstain.) Track has been laid on more than half of the mileage of the first unit of the East Oregon Lumber company's railroad from Enterprise to the north. The crew is now working in the upper part of H. F. Kelly's ranch where there was some delay while the grade was filled in over the ground where the old camp was established last summer. This is now past, and the men are entering the short canyon which leads to the Ant Flat road.
Knights of Pythias Social. The eleventh anniversary of the founding of the Enterprise lodge, Knights of Pythias will be celebrated tonight with a social session, to be attended by members and their wives and families. A program will be given after which all will gather at a picnic lunch. Each woman will prepare the tables and make the coffee.

Make $50 for Belgians. The play given by high school pupils recently with such marked success, brought in about $50 for the Belgian relief fund. No amateur production that has been given here in a long time has been prepared more carefully than this by the high school and the results showed the good effects of this training.

Meeting of Fair Directors. Directors of the county fair association will meet in Enterprise Monday March 22, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of making arrangements for the 1915 fair. Stockholders and others interested in the fair are invited to attend and give their ideas as to many matters. The premium list, rules for the exhibits and other important details will be passed on.

Falls Heir to Small Fortune. R. H. Rorig, relates the Union Scout, announces this week that he has heard from Germany and that through the death of an aged relative, he has come into possession of a small fortune. He has been telling his good luck to a few selected friends this week, and accepts his good fortune with becoming modesty.

Land Office Items. William S. McAlpin of Galina, Grant county; Elihu C. Keith, Echo, Umatilla county; Ira B. Staggs, Keating, Baker county; and Marsh Courtney, Lena, Morrow county; filed homestead applications in the land office this morning. Oliver O. Baisley of Durkee filed an additional homestead application.
