This dance should be well patronized and as it is for a worthy cause this means will largely keep the baseball promoters from asking the merchants for money. The dance tickets will be sold for 75 cents and the gallery seats will be 10 cents.

SLATE GIVEN CLUB CONTROL

C. C. Mc CORMICK WILL HELP LAUNCH TEAM

First Practice Set for Next Sunday Afternoon—Youngsters Out

Beecher Slate, clever young pitcher and all around baseball player who earned distinction last year, will manage a team of baseball players that hope to perfect a league with Elgin, Imbler, Cove or Union. C. C. McCormick is assisting Slate to get under way, and has a lease on the fair grounds, but as soon as the preliminary arrangements are out of the way Mr. Slate will have sole charge of the team.

Some very promising material is showing up, including several youngsters who have the gift but as yet have not been under fire. Slate has issued a call for first practice of an organized sort next Sunday March 21 at 2 p. m. and he hopes to have a large turnout from which to pick a team for the coming year.

Plans for the Union County league are under way and a meeting will be called soon for the arrangement of schedule and the line.
