MISS LYNE ON WAY

Will Arrive Tomorrow Morning and Spend Several Days in City.

Felice Lyne and those who are traveling with her, will arrive in La Grande tomorrow morning and spend the interim between then and her concert hour in this city. Word coming from Salt Lake is to the effect that her concert there Friday was a great success.

During her stay in La Grande it is expected that Miss Lyne will remain quiet in her hotel suite and rest for the concert here Friday evening at the tabernacle, but that her many friends will get opportunity to call on her is certain.

The first day of seat selling was remarkably successful. The attack on the best seats was terrific, and not many of the $1.50 seats are still for sale. The $1.00 seats and those selling for 75 cents give splendid opportunity to hear the singer nevertheless, as anyone familiar with the tabernacle knows, and that the general admission on the night of the concert will take up space not marked on the chart where only permanent seats are shown, is anticipated. At the rate the seats are going now, the board will be cleaned tomorrow night.
