M'GRAW'S STAFF NOW SATISFIES

Howlers Have Dropped their Yipping.

New York, March 19.—More and more, as the opening day draws near, does it appear as though the Giants and Braves were going to stage a merry little war all by themselves for the National League pennant. All there is to it—they are the class of the league and from this angle there doesn't seem to be a team in the Tenor circuit that has even a chance to cheat them out.

Critics who a few weeks ago were howling that McGraw didn't have a pitching staff are strangely silent now. Critics who at the close of the last season were bowling that his infield was shot to pieces crawled into their holes when the Little Napoleon went out and grabbed Honus Lobert. They burrowed still deeper when he went out and grabbed himself Poi Peritt.

Mathewson, Tesreau, Marquard, Perritt, Chalmers, Frome—how does it look?

Rudolph, Tyler, James, Hess, Davis, Crutcher—how does it look?

If there are any of the other six teams in the league boasting such aggregations they have yet to blare forth.

Getting down to hair line distinctions—on paper—the Giants even seem to have the edge on the hated Bostonites. Comparison however, are odious, as was proven quite conclusively last October when the dopesters began comparing Schmidt to McInnis, Deal to Baker and Gowdy to Schang.

Schmidt, Evers, Maranville and Smith, against Merkle, Doyle, Fletcher and Lobert Magee, Connelly and Moran against any three of the following: Robertson, Snodgrass, Thorpe, Burns or Murray, Gowdy and Whaling against McLean, Myers and Smith.

If the foregoing battle fronts don't offer pre-season on prospects of the hottest little fracas in the history of the grand old game than all dope is useless, and the dopesters should be sent to Belgium.

The weakness of the Giants last year was attributed to lack of another good pitcher and a weakness at third. Both have been killed—and most ably. Weakness of the Braves—if there are any—was in their hitting. Sherwood Magee, slugger par excellence, was added.

Now, if the anvil chorus will just join in on "Just Before the Battle Mother," we'll let out bets on the Giants and Braves against the field stick from April to October.

CHICAGO CUB FANS ARE HOPING ROGER WILL BRING THEM A WINNER.

ROGER BRESNAHAN.

Chicago Cub fans are looking forward to a great year, because the Cubs are under the leadership of Roger Bresnahan. Roger is putting his team through the paces in Tampa, Fla.

as being among the very best in the country and it was there that Mr. Roosevelt secured many of the well trained dogs that have accompanied him on many of his famous hunting expeditions.

When The Recorder first announced the fact that the dogs would be purchased through Roosevelt's recommendation a number of people were the least bit sceptical as to the truth of the matter. The dogs will be here, however, and the correspondence and pedigrees on hand to prove any refutation.

Imbler, March 18.—(Special)—The air is full of talk which is circling round the baseball and Imbler will probably organize if there is any chance of securing a place again in the local league.

Pendleton, March 18.—With high hopes of getting in the money, the members of the Pendleton bowling team left this morning for Spokane to contest in the northwest bowling tournament. The team is composed of Captain F. J. McMonies, Loren Hoover, Fred Book, Omar Stephens, Pat McDevitt and Jake Myers. In practice these men have rolled over 3000 several times in three games and, if they can hit that stride at Spokane, they should grab off some of the velvet.

Messrs. Galloway and Hearing are now in communication with Mr. Osborne, and expect to have the much coveted dogs here within the next 30 days.

SPORT AT RANDOM.

(Elgin Recorder.)

New York, March 5, 1915. Mr. C. A. Galloway, Elgin, Oregon, Dear Mr. Galloway—In reply to your recent communication will refer you to John Osborn, of Louisiana.

J. W. McGrath, Secretary to Mr. Roosevelt.

The above letter was received the latter part of last week by County Commissioner Galloway in reply to a letter recently addressed to Ex-President Roosevelt requesting references as to where a pair of high class bear dogs could be secured.

"Teddy" has always been noted for his strenuousness and thus it can be seen that with his thousands of duties to attend to he takes the time to grant all minor requests and overlooks no opportunity to render a favor.

Messrs. Galloway and Hearing are now in communication with Mr. Osborne, and expect to have the much coveted dogs here within the next 30 days.

Two great questions to the prospective home-builders are "How much is your home going to cost," and "what will be the cost for repairs in the future." There are two ways to build, the cheap and inexperienced way, and the good and substantial way which means good workmanship and good material.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE— DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.
