

It used to be Velvets-Now it Lowneys for Easter!

In fact the giving of Lowneys has come to be the fad—and the man who fails to recognize this fails to keep abreast of the times.

Put up in fancy boxes conveying the season's sentiment and each dainty morsel expressing a thought from you, to greet "her" on Easter morn.

Rehearsals for "In the Bishop's Carriage" dramatized from the book, by Miram Michelson, are running smoothly and the Elks are now assured of a first class production. They have engaged a competent director so all the scenic effects and little details will be brought out as in a regular road attraction. The lawyer, Henry Jamison is a quiet, forceful man, who has spent the better part of his life studying criminals and showing them the true life. Ed Colledge is an ideal Jamison and plays the part with the true dramatic instinct. The comedy role of Sam Hillary who is suffering from an overdose of "John Barley Corn" is ably handled by A. B. Rogers "Nuf said." The Rev. Bishop Truesdale, Mr. Strauss, the theatrical manager and Jim Tracey, the heavy are in the capable hands of H. E. Dixon, Charlie Harding and C. M. Devere, Sargent Halloran, Palmer and the

The most desirable policy from the standpoint of the policy-holder and his family is that which provides ample protection at a cost so low as not to burden them.

The average man cares little for any of the "side issues." When he purchases a life insurance policy; what he most desires is protection for his family at reasonable cost.

The policies of this association provide only protection and the premiums charged are for that alone.
