

DIXIE MINSTRELS TOMORROW NIGHT

Everybody likes the old fashioned minstrel show. An opportunity will be given Thursday evening, April 8th, in the High School auditorium for all to enjoy the latest popular songs, snappy jokes and comedy, fancy dancing, and good instrumental music by the best local talent.

This is one of the regular numbers on the High School Lyceum course, staged and directed by Ellsworth Ellis for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. School auditorium; the date, Thursday, April 8th; the price, 50 cents.

The cast includes the stately interlocutor, Rev. G. L. Clark; the four funny end men, Ray Williams, Don Sargent, V. H. Papst and Ellsworth Ellis; such well known popular soloists as Mrs. George Huntington Currey, Miss Nell Garrick, Miss Ruth Gaskill, C. P. Ferrin, L. D. Howland and Bobbie Pattison.

Those holding season lyceum tickets may reserve them at the Red Cross Drug Store, where tickets are on sale. Remember the place, High School auditorium; the date, Thursday, April 8th; the price, 50 cents.

The program follows:
