"COLLEGE WIDOW" NOW SHINING LIGHT IN PICTURE DRAMA

MARGUERITE SNOW.

Marguerite Snow, prettiest of the "college widows" when George Ade's comedy, "The College Widow," was a stage favorite, has soared right up to the top of the ladder of fame, and she made her flight by way of the moving pictures.

The first big success made by the former comedienne was in "The Million Dollar Mystery," in which she played the role of Countess Olga, but it was as the adventure-loving Zudora in the film drama, "Zudora," the one-time "college widow" has won a place up among the brightest stars of the screen world.

Although the public know her as Marguerite Snow, to her friends she is Mrs. James Craze, wife of the popular moving-picture star

Ann Murdock, who closed her season in Porter Emerson Browne's play "A Girl of Today" at Boston recently has been added to the cast.

Charles Frohman and David Belasco are selecting for their joint revival of "A Celebrated Case." Otis Skinner and Nat Goodwin will also join the Frohman-Belasco company.

Miss Murdock, who will play "Adrienne" in the revival, will present her play here in August.

Another revival planned early next month is that of "Trilby" by Joseph Brooks at the Shubert theatre. Rose Coghlan will play "Mme. Vinard."

"I Didn't Want to Do It" is the catchy song suggested title of a new farce comedy Charles Frohman is launching.

William B. Maxwell's tale, "The Ragged Messenger" has been selected by Walker Whiteside for his vehicle next season.

Twenty-nine hundred girls of a local high school were special guests yesterday at a matinee of "The Bluebird" at the Manhattan theatre.

Bluebird" has returned to rejuvenated favor.

"Twin Beds" at the Fulton theatre has celebrated its 250th performance, with the usual souvenir mementoes.

Coughs and Colds Not to Be Neglected. Anyone will realize the seriousness of neglecting a cold if he observes results of such neglect among his acquaintances. How often have you heard, "He caught cold, didn't do anything for it and it turned into"—then some dreaded disease is named.

Ordinary colds yield to prompt treatment at the beginning. That is why every family should be supplied with a reliable cough medicine—one that will heal raw and inflamed surfaces, loosen the phlegm, allay irritation, ease the hoarseness and stop the tickling sensation in the throat that does not permit one to sleep.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is invaluable for relief of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, tickling in throat, tightness or soreness, grippe or bronchial coughs. It contains no harmful ingredients. It is healing, soothing, efficient and pleasing.

Two great questions to the prospective home-builders are "How much is your home going to cost," and "what will be the cost for repairs in the future." There are two ways to build, the cheap and inexperienced way, and the good and substantial way which means good workmanship and good material.
