PERRY SCHOOL CHIEF ELECTED

FORMER PRINCIPAL CHOSEN FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

Prof. Bormann Well Known to School Circles.

Perry, April 7. (Special)—At a recent meeting of the school board Mr. F. E. Bormann was selected as the next teacher for the Perry school. Mr. Bormann is well known in Island City and throughout the county, and it is expected he will conduct a very successful school campaign the coming season.

Sunday the Perry Baseball team went to Haines, and there defeated the Haines players nine to six. It was a hard fight, but the Perry boys have had some strenuous training of late and are in shape to do some excellent work.

BARDS READY TO SING

PERFORMANCE TONIGHT ONE OF MERIT.

Lycium Ticket Holders Admitted—Minstrel Sparkles With Fun.

A good ticket sale, and the number of lycium season tickets out, insure a good crowd for the presentation of the Y. M. C. A. minstrels tonight at the high school auditorium. Every part is letter perfect and the singing goes with a fine zip all the way. The jokes are fresh and clean, the olio and side issues are first-class and all in all the program is one of merit.

The curtain rises at 8:15 this evening. From that moment until the finale chorus, there is going to be something to entertain every minute of the show. Holders of lycium number tickets should remember that they can gain admittance with them. The cash admittance for those who don't hold tickets is very reasonable and the Y. M. C. A. gets the surplus receipts after expenses are paid. The seat sale has been conducted at the Red Cross Drug store.

At the noon hour the end-men and several of the principals in tonight's minstrelsy paraded a la Ford.

WANTED—A good housekeeper on ranch. No objections to one child. Care Observer. 4-8-5tp.

CLIMATIC DATA.

Climatic data, based on readings for 24 hours ending last night at 6 o'clock:
Maximum, 66; Minimum 39.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Dr. C. A. Phipps came in from Portland this morning to be present at the Sunday school convention.

Gus A. Lovegren, a timber cruiser for the government, came in from Portland last night and is quartered at the Savoy.

F. C. McGinnis and wife came in from Portland last night and will visit in Wallowa county. They are Savoy guests today.

Mrs. J. D. White, of Haines, was at the Savoy last night on her way to Lostine to attend the funeral of a relative.

Lou Stoop and a number of other citizens from Elgin are in La Grande today. They came over via the Ford route.

Don Pruitt, of Stanfield, was in La Grande last night, having come over here to deliver a carload of bucks to parties near Elgin. Mr. Pruitt was a Foley hotel guest.

Acting General Superintendent Palmer of the O.-W. went out on the branch line this morning in his private car. He was accompanied by William Bollons, superintendent of the La Grande division.

Peter O'Sullivan, prominent Ritter stockman and former county judge of Wallowa county, arrived back in Pendleton last evening and will probably remain here for a time—Pendleton E. O.

Seek Stolen Horses. Sheriff Halsey, after a week's absence in Wallowa county in search of a couple of young men, by the name of Clive Dougherty and Cal Monroe, against whom the charge of stealing three head of horses, two from Bert DeLore and one from Godfrey McAllister, had been lodged and for whom warrants had been issued returned Tuesday. He recovered the horses, which had been re-branded, over the old brand, and turned loose; and while he had been able to pick up several clues and get on the track of the men he was after, he was unable to definitely locate them, as friends of the young men evidently kept them posted, thus making it possible and easy for them to elude the officer. The father of one of the young the education even before her child was born.

These are her little girl's accomplishments:

Reads, writes, and speaks eight languages.

Has written French verse, a suffrage book entitled, "A Plea to Gallant Knights," and magazine and newspaper stories, having begun this work in her fifth year.

Taught a class in Esperanto at the Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh.

Made the first translation of "Mother Goose" rhymes into Esperanto.

Has memorized several of Cicero's orations and parts of Horace, Livy, Sallust and Caesar.

Plays the piano, violin, guitar and mandolin.

Can swim, cook, row, drive an auto, box, ride a horse and play baseball.

Albertine is a pretty little girl, older than Winifred. She seems very bright. She was accused by Mrs. Nolker in New York of having stolen $1,000. Mrs. Nolker had become acquainted with her and her mother in Paris.

"If Betty Nolker hadn't quarreled because I gave the hairdresser a 25-cent tip, she probably would not have lost her pocketbook and I would have been spared the terrible humiliation of being arrested and taken to court."

Her dark blue eyes blazing with indignation and her voice choked with emotion, Albertine told a reporter the circumstances that led to her being arrested.

The two had been in a hair dressing shop and Mrs. Nolker gave the girl money with which to pay the charge. Albertine handed the hair dresser a tip of 25 cents, she says, and she believes that greatly angered her benefactor.

The father of one of the young men, however promised the sheriff that he would bring his son to Astoria as soon as he could locate him, and thought he would prevail upon the other to also come but whether or not this can be done remains to be seen. Mr. Halsey feels sure, though that it is only a question of time until the arrest of the young men will be effected. The horses stolen were from the Anatone country. Guy Fountain, the dairyman, also has one horse missing and accompanied the sheriff on his trip, but was unable to find or get any track of his animal.—Astoria Sentinel.
