Cost Bill Reaches $694 Total

Baker, April 21.—Unless there is a reversal in the decision in the case of William Weigand vs. Oswald West, the plaintiff will have a cost bill of $694 to pay. Many witnesses were present for five days each, and traveled 140 miles each, in addition to which there is listed a clerk's fee of $10, a stenographer's fee of $35, and attorney's fee of $10. Fees for witness run from $21 to $24.

Tripl costs are claimed in the case under the statute providing for action taken against state militiamen. J. H. Nichols stated today that he would object to he payment of the bill.

Texas Yale Grads Meet

Dallas, Tex. Apr.21.—Yale grads and former students at Old Eli gathered from all parts of Texas today for the annual meeting of the State Yale Association. Now to get some Texas huskies to reinforce the Yale football team was a subject informally discussed by many delegates whose Christmas lists have had to be curtailed on account of Harvard victories. The annual banquet and toasts by men of state wide prominence and alumni representatives from other leading universities was to be held tonight.

Fairview, Oregon, has ceased her wicked ways by deciding to put a band on Sunday dancing, and yet we hear that Eastern Oregon is wild and woolly.
