GABY DESLYS IS COMING

"HER TRIUMPH" WILL PICTURE FAMED DANCER

Tonight and Tomorrow .Acade .Will Run Sensational Film

Gaby Deslys, the sensation of two continents and the girl who drove a king from his throne by her good looks and vivacious manners, is coming to La Grande; the illustrious international dancing artist is coming tonight and tomorrow—in films—to the Grande theatre, supported by her famous dancing partner Harry Pilcer, in an original story of stage life, "Her Triumph."

The story is of a humble under study in love with the leading comedian. A jealous leading woman demands the understudy's dismissal but the manager refuses and the girl continues. Later the woman attempts to abduct her.

The dancing of the star and her partner makes rare entertainment of itself and the play is unusually charming.

You probably remember the sensation and results of the infatuation of one of Europe's rulers for the famous dancer and actress.—Pd Adv.

The subject was written around the star, and is so constructed as to display to the utmost advantage Mlle. Deslys's versatile and astonishing talents. The production introduces many novelties, such as the Dance Deslys, an original terphichorean creation, and other features that have won fame for the star throughout the world.

The wonderful and beautiful Gaby is even more bewitching on the screen than she has been in all her previous stage performances. Produced by the Famous Players Film Company.

"THREE WEEKS" TO COME

Story of Love That Eight Million Have Read, In Photoplay

The most sensational drama of thrilling love and royal intrigue ever shown in America—"Three Weeks" is coming to the Arcade next Monday and Tuesday, April 26-27th.

Everyone knows of the book of the same name and most people have read it. It is Elinor Glyn's greatest work.

The story in its novel form has been read by more than eighty million people. It is a fair estimate to presume that more than eight times eighty million people will wish to see the film realization of the brilliant romance that ends in an unusual tragedy. Readers of the book are familiar with the details that go to comprise the fascinating narrative of the original. In the film play the author has added to her creation a prologue that intensifies the thrill of some of her scenes and adds color and vivacity to others. Sonia runs away from her castle and her king after the manner described in the book. She encounters Paul in the restaurant in Lucerne, Switzerland, precisely as recounted in the novel. The two, a queen with a country and a king without a throne—fall madly in love. She struggles against her enthrallment, and seeks to flee from temptation. But an accident halts her flight and the inevitable meeting occurs. In the photoplay version all these incidents are idealized. The tiger rug tryst of the pair in the queen's apartment in Lucerne is reproduced as in the novel. The thrilling and tragic denouement of the romance of the pair is shown in all its gripping power. The orgies of the dissolute king, the mad revels in the palace, the plots and counterplots of the cabal of royal counselors to dethrone the queen are all graphically indicated.

Miss Madaine Traverse, who appears in the role of the temperamental queen, is regarded as one of the most attractive of the country's younger stars. Mr. Mahlon Hamilton, who plays the role of Paul, is one of the most popular of leading players of the native stage.

Remember "Three Weeks" is here for two days only—Monday and Tuesday—at the Arcade. Admission—adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.—Adv.

Odd Fellows Convention
Bloomburg, Pa. Apr. 23.—In commemoration of the 96th anniversary of the birth of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, upwards of 25,000 members of that organization gathered here today to celebrate. They represented practically every lodge that is a member of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Association.

While thousands of spectators lined the sidewalks, the Odd Fellows parade over three and one-half miles of gayly decorated streets, to the music of about thirty bands. They appeared in a beautiful array of decorations, as every building in the business section and practically every residence in the town was decorated.

At ten o'clock in front of the Court House, Mayor Oscar Lowenberg, made the address of welcome to the Odd Fellows and handed over the key of the town, which was accepted by J. W. Stroh, of Sunbury, who made the responsive speech and one of the greatest days in Bloomburg's history was in full swing.
