Yes, it's a fact and the whole truth. Royal Patent Flour is really $1.80 per sack at all grocers. Guaranteed, or money back. This is about the price of Strait Grade Flour. Try it, and see if this is not the truth. Yours for a guaranteed patent flour at a lot live price. Made in La Grande Oregon.—Adv. 4-26-2t.

Robert Mays ex-postmaster of Elgin was in the city Saturday on his way to visit his brother Chas. Mays of the North Powder country. "Bob" as he is called has finished a four year term behind the bars in the Elgin post office and feels like a school boy now that he is free. He is positive of the fact that if Taft or Teddy or Hughes or some of the big boys are elected President and sent him to serve his country again as postmaster that he would insist the salary be raised and the hours made shorter.

Mr. James owns land in this valley and his work being that of a locomotive engineer will probably get a transfer to this road so that the family can be near their possessions and also avoid the rigorous winters of the north. Mrs. Garey is a professional nurse graduated from St. Luke hospital in St. Paul.

Miss Lucille Jorris left this morning for Enterprise where she will make her home for the Summer with her parents on the Jorris ranch.

Guy M. Byrkit and Norman Frees went to Vincent this morning on Palmer Lumber company business.

P. S. Robinson returned to Looking Glass today after spending Sunday with his folks in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cason and children of King City, Mo., are in the city visiting the Mrs. Jane Snook family and other acquaintances. Mr. Cason is a merchant tailor of King City.

THREE WEEKS READY.

Sensational Novel to be Thrown on Arcade Screen Tonight.

The stage is set for the appearance of "Three Weeks" the sensational love story, at the Arcade tonight. The films arrived this morning and will be shown tonight and tomorrow night only.

The story in its novel form has been read by more than eighty million people. It is a fair estimate to presume that more than eight times eighty million people will wish to see the film realization of the brilliant romance that ends in an unusual tragedy. Readers of the book are familiar with the details that go to comprise the fascinating narrative of the original. In the film play the author has added to her creation a prologue that intensifies the thrill of some of her scenes and adds color and vivacity to others.

Sonia runs away from her castle and her king after the manner described in the book. She encounters Paul in the restaurant in Lucerne, Switzerland, precisely as recounted in the novel. The two, a queen with a country and a king without a throne—fall madly in love. She struggles against her enthrallment, and seeks to flee from temptation. But an accident halts her flight and the inevitable meeting occurs. In the photoplay version all these incidents are idealized. The tiger rug tryst of the pair in the queen's apartment in Lucerne is reproduced as in the novel. The thrilling and tragic denouement of the romance of the pair is shown in all its gripping power. The orgies of the dissolute king, the mad revels in the palace, the plots and counterplots of the cabal of royal counselors to de-throne the queen are all graphically indicated.

Miss Madaine Traverse, who appears in the role of the temperamental queen, is regarded as one of the most attractive of the country's younger stars. Mr. Mahlon Hamilton, who plays the role of Paul, is one of the most popular of leading players of the native stage. Remember "Three Weeks" is here for two days only—Monday and Tuesday—at the Arcade. Admission—adults 35 cents, children 15 cents.—Adv. 4-23-3t

AFTER THE CLEAN UP THEN WHAT? PAINT UP OF COURSE.
