CEMENT WORK NEAR AT HAND

BIG COURTS TO BE STARTED TO-MORROW

La Grande Ball Club Will Hook Up
Union Sunday

Tomorrow noon a crew of men will commence to lay the cement for the big La Grande Tennis club courts on West Adams avenue. The foundation is of cinders, rooled most thoroughly into the loam dirt, and this is said to be more satisfactory for so large an area, than gravel. The rolling was thorough.

The finish of the cementing will be the smoothest possible. Informal dancing parties may be held on the big area when it is finished, as it will be considerably larger than the cement floor at the park pavilion.

Next Sunday La Grande will meet the mighty Indian at Union, the Indian and his team which stood Elgin off with a terrible slaughter last Sunday and Da Grande's metal will be tested once again. Elgin goes to Baker for its rst game their.

New York, Apr. 28.—Much of the mystery surrounding the motordrome to be laid out on the site of the old sheephead Bay race track has been dissipated with the announcement of the promoters that the two mile course will be the last word in automobile racing course, with a speed of 140 miles an hour as the limit of reasonable safety for drivers.

The confidence of the men fostering the motordrome project is indicated by the fact that they are providing a seating capacity of 200,000 persons. Their estimate of this high attendance figure is based on the great interest shown at Indianapolis, where the auto races at times have drawn nearly 100,000 persons, with an immediate population of only 233,000 upon which to draw. On this basis, New York's 5,000,000 would flow out over the course.

Preparations are complete for the greatest race meetings in automobile annals, beginning next August. Two great meets a year will be held, with $50,000 in prizes as the attraction. In addition, a 24 hour midsummer contest will be featured, with a series of matinee events for stock cars interspersed here and there.

Carl G. Fisher, founder of the Indianapolis motordrome project, has accepted the presidency as slated for the board of directors.

When the open championships are contested at Baltusol in June, Harry Vardon rated the greatest golf player in the world, is expected to participate. Vardon was here two years ago, with Edward Ray, but was beaten by Ouimet in the now historic match that surprised the golf world. American golfers already are preparing for the second invasion of Vardon.
