JOSEPH FOLKS LEAVE TOWN

SPLENDID PARTY GIVE IN THEIR HONOR

Various News Items From and About Joseph Section

(Joseph Herald)
The Catholics of Joseph and vicinity entertained in a most delightful manner the Priscilla, Nui and A. and G. clubs Tuesday night in Roup's hall. Nearly 100 persons greatly enjoyed the evening playing games, music and partaking of refreshments. Charming vocal music was rendered by Mrs. Coe and Mrs. Parker, with Mrs. Gibson as accompanist. A beautiful farewell address was delivered by Father Heuel. The party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. King, who expect to leave Joseph next Saturday for a few days visit with relatives and friends in Walla Walla, Yakima Valley, Portland and Albany before locating permanently. During their three years' residence in Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. King have made many friends who regret their departure, but all wish them well wherever they may go. Mr. King is one of the most competent electricians in the country. Some time ago he resigned the position of manager of the Joseph Light & Power Co. and this position will be filled for the present by Henry Doslor.

Hats off to the Joseph boys—they finally won a ball game at last. The Alder Slope team played them a close game last Sunday, the score standing 8 to 6 in favor of Joseph. It was a rattling good game from start to finish. Next Sunday Lostine will play Joseph on the Joseph grounds. Sweet Shop Van is now manager of the Joseph team—and he is a good one.

R. C. Kingsley has traded his noted thoroughbred Jersey bull "Souci King" that has taken premiums at several western state fairs, to Albin Ruderger for another noted thoroughbred Jersey bull, "Pogis Kent"—also a prize-winner. These gentlemen deserve much credit for the interest they take in improving Wallowa County stock.

Hon Abija Fairchild, the brilliant Enterprise lawyer, lectured in the Methodist church at Flora Saturday evening on subjects connected with the eastern war. He has many Chinese, Japanese and Filipino curios.—Flora Journal.
