

UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR

SKIMS NATURE'S WAY

To be sure, the United States Cream Separator bowl intensifies the force of gravity (Nature's Way) many thousand times.

But after all, the United States way amounts to Nature's Way hastened; cream to top, skim milk to bottom, both in their natural courses. In this the United States bowl differs from others.

This aid to Nature produces the same better results as when we aid Nature in plant growth, or in a hundred other ways.

The United States, when separating, protects the cream as perfectly as does Nature when by gravity she allows the cream to ascend gently to the top, the skim-milk settling to the bottom.

The United States applies mechanical force by a separating system so superior that the fat, or cream globules, which compose the delicate part of the milk, are protected from all injury.

This is why cream made by the United States separator is noted far and wide for its smooth, long-keeping quality.

All other cream separator constructions so operate that they lose to greater or lesser degree the advantages of Nature's ideal principle. Their wrong constructions produce cross currents that not only obstruct free passage of the cream, but mix and remix it with the separated milk. The result is poorer cream and less cream.

The United States Cream Separator keeps the milk and cream entirely apart from the instant separation begins.

Constructed on this plan, the United States separator makes a cleaner extraction of cream.

THE UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR HOLDS THE WORLD'S RECORD FOR CLOSEST SKIMMING IN THE GREATEST SEPARATOR CONTEST EVER HELD.

We have never heard of anybody improving on Nature, by opposing her plans, have you?

The O-W. shop team plays Perry at Perry next Sunday, and Cove and Imbler get together for the first time in the State Amateur league. Managers Daniels at Cove, and Witty at Imbler are each as sure of winning as can be, and the fun should be good. The game will be played at Imbler.

Union's powerful team—everybody seems to admit she is powerful—will take on Baker next Sunday at Baker, and it wouldn't be surprising to hear of Baker's downfall. Union, La Grande and Baker are now tied for first place in the league.
