

WALLOWA IN BALL SEASON

ENTERPRISE TEAMS REORGANIZED COMPLETELY.

Joseph Takes Game from Enterprise—Other Sport News.

Wallowa county, though a little late, is getting in the baseball business with considerable ginger. The Enterprise Chieftain says:

Joseph took Sunday's baseball game from Enterprise by the score of 15 to 6. Chenoweth, who is working at a shearing plant, could not get in and Rogers, a new comer, pitched for Enterprise. Percy Shutt pitched for Joseph, and had the best of it on the mound.

A dance to raise money for the new uniforms for the Enterprise baseball team will be given Friday night at Amusement hall. The old team has practically gone out of business, and new players have organized a promising nine. These players have new uniforms and are taking this means of paying for them.

Greer, of Wallowa, Conkey and Larson, of La Grande and Athletic Director Chas. Reynolds left last night for Eugene to participate in the state interscholastic there tomorrow.

Two bear dogs, received a few weeks ago by C. A. Galloway and Jake Hearing to be tried as to their merits, have proven all that was expected of them and in accordance with the agreement made with the owner of the kennels from which the dogs were shipped, forwarded the money for their payment Tuesday of this week, says the Eugene Recorder.

While hard luck has prevented giving the dogs many opportunities to prove their worth, the few trials so far given have been such as to prove that the dogs are first-class and all they were recommended to be.

"Teddy" and "Woody" are the new names given the pair of thoroughbreds and the two will be used in numerous bear hunting expeditions during the remainder of the season.

New York, May 11.—All indications are that easterners will be given another chance to see how Pacific coast collegians swing their oars at the Poughkeepsie regatta in June. Stanford University is about to take the plunge and send its eight oared crew to compete on the Hudson. This means that a crew which has overcome enormous handicaps and worked its way to the top of the heap on the Western coast will make a bid for the highest rowing honors of the country.

It may sound like fiction, but the champions of the Pacific coast have to ride eight miles on a train and then walk nearly a mile to get to their practice waters. Insofar as the location of their university is concerned the Stanford oarsmen are real "land-lubbers," but transport them a few miles, make a splash like a mill pond and they are like ducks. The Cardinal crew simply rowed the husky Washington university eight off its feet in the recent races of Oakland when they copped the championship. Not only did the varsity crew push their shell over in front of the Washington and California boats, but the freshmen came through with a similar performance and gave Stanford a clean sweep.

The students of Stanford have now raised $1,000 toward the expenses incident to sending their crew to Poughkeepsie. It is estimated the trip will cost about $2,500 and the Cardinal rowers are busy raising the remaining amount needed by subscription.

Frank J. Guerano, coach of the crew, was coxswain of the last Stanford eight which rowed in the east. That was in 1912 and the coast representatives finished last. Guerano naturally learned a few things as a result of his experience on this trip which will be of great benefit when he appears on the river as instructor for a competing crew. The coach has declared that the eight of 1912 rowed the Poughkeepsie in practice in better time than the winners of the big race showed. They had too much practice, however, and went stale. It is Guerano's plan to give his present crew but five to seven days work on the Hudson to prevent a slump owing to climatic conditions.

If present plans are carried out the

"Blind Pig" Is Raided; Six Arrested
Baker, May 10.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning a raid on a house on Second street, between Washington and Center, by Chief of Police Jackson and Officers Palmer and Jones resulted in the arrest of six people, two being charged with selling liquor without a license and four with disorderly conduct. The two former are Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Easterbrooks, both deaf and dumb, as are Frank Chambers and Robert Adkins. Being unable to understand the officers at first, it was some time before they fairly understood that they were "pinched." The other two were Simon Kranberry and Fred Hurley. They put up cash bail for their appearance in police court tomorrow morning.

The four deaf mutes were being held in jail. The officers confiscated a quantity of beer found in the place.

PROPOSITION TO BUILD HOTEL
Julius Roesch of La Grande Offers to Take Stock in Hostelry

It is reported this week from reliable sources that Julius Roesch of La Grande, offers to take half the stock in a company for the purpose of building a hotel at Union. Mr. Roesch estimates that it will require about $20,000 to erect a modern building for this place, and he stands ready to put in the Wilson building and assume half the expense of building to it sufficiently to make the sort of structure desired. He figures that the Miller lots next to the Wilson building will be needed for the enterprise also. He will submit plans soon looking toward presenting something tangible to our people.—Union Republican.

It's the Truth
H. N. Gamble went out on a prospecting trip to the head of Grande Ronde river this last week and returned home Saturday vastly impressed with that region. Mr. Gamble is well posted on mining and located several valuable claims while away which he will soon develop. He is also a good hunter and bagged three small sized deer on the trip and is exhibiting the pelts, or robes, to admiring friends. Likewise he is a clever angler and caught a hundred trout on the trip the smallest of which was 12 inches long. Mr. Gamble says he threw away some of the very biggest ones which were unhandy to carry and the other very biggest got away. (Mr. Gamble is a truthful man.)—Union Scout.

M. and Mrs. W. T. Wright left Wednesday night for Spokane, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Ina Herbst, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Herbst are arranging a big musical event for Spokane, to be presented at an early day, and Mr. and Mrs. Wright will attend this affair while away.

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable
Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted parts and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." Get a 25c. bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency.

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Her Stomach Trouble

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne Ind. Obtainable everywhere.
