

We Certainly Like It

So says everyone. It is the likeable kind of candy. It looks good and tastes good, and makes you wish for more. A pound is hardly enough to satisfy real candy lovers, so take along a pound for today and another for after while.

LET US DEBATE THE PAINT QUESTION.

Here are some affirmative arguments:—

It preserves your buildings; it increases the value of your property by improving its appearance; it adds much to the general appearance of your home town; it sets a good example for others to keep things neat and clean.

It is the best kind of disinfectant; it gives employment to men who need the work; You get a lasting satisfaction for the money spent—most of the money so spent remains at home.

Can you give as good negative arguments? If not, the affirmative wins, and you should get your paint at

MEETING AT ELGIN TODAY.

Eastern Oregon Telephone Company Stockholders in Session.

Elgin, May 15. (Special)—Over 100 stockholders in the Eastern Oregon Telephone company met here today for the transaction of considerable business. Stockholders from all parts of the county are present, and it is apparent that before the meeting is over much business will have been transacted.

Aside from the election of new officers, the matter of placing an assessment against the company stockholders to liquidate indebtedness is a big issue. Considerable objection was heard during the day against the plan.
