

LA GRANDE AND BAKER VICTORS

UNION AND ELGIN FALL BEFORE FOES.

McInnis Patches Up Team and Wallops Elgin Hard.

Baker and La Grande won in the Eastern Oregon league yesterday and the teams are well shaped for the final race down the stretch.

At Elgin La Grande took sweet revenge for the defeat suffered at Elgin's hands the week before. Old Reliable Smith was kept on Elgin's mound for six innings during which La Grande scored 11 runs. Then Bell of Imbler went in to pitch and held La Grande scoreless. Hector McInnis heaved for La Grande and Richter caught.

The funny part of it is that McInnis went to Elgin with about half his regular team—some missed the morning train and others couldn't go. Harry Deious, a roofer, was drafted into service and scored three put-outs and a single. Jim Kellum of Imbler was conscribed and went good. A man named Keys covered third for McInnis in good shape. Gordon Manory, a friend of L. Oliver, played first, registering two two-baggers. This man with Oliver lead the hitting the second baseman putting over two double baggers and a single. Richter and McInnis hit out home runs.

The score:
R H E
La Grande 11 15 2
Elgin 5 7 3
Batteries: Elgin—Smith, Bell and Thomas. La Grande—McInnis and Richter.

Baker Wins Handily.
Union's powerful Indian was conquered yesterday by Baker. Young Fosbury pitched for Baker, the youngster letting the veterans down with seven hits. The score:
Baker 6 8 4
Union 1 7 9
Batteries: White and Straub for Union. Fosbury and Jackson for Baker.

Best Thing for a Billious Attack
"On account of my connement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man." writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neureuer, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman cured his children of whooping cough. I recommend it to every one, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough." Mrs. D. Gikson, Youngstown, O., writes: "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. I tried lots of cough remedies, but she didn't get any better. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to me. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after using one bottle the cough left her."

This sterling old remedy has been in use for years and is just as efficient for adults as for children. It gives relief for irritated and tickling throat, tight and sore chest, grippe and bronchial coughs.

IMBLER WINS OVER SHOPPERS

THREE-FOUR SCORE RESULTS FROM CONTEST HERE.

Cove Runs Away from Perry, Keeping up Winning Streak.

Imbler wormed herself to victory yesterday afternoon over the J.W. Shop team in a game marked with considerable misplay but nevertheless a fair exhibition of ball. The crowd was lamentably small, due probably to the condition of the weather. Geddes tied it up in the seventh making it three all after Imbler had scored three times in the third. Imbler arose to the occasion and put the deciding run over in the eighth inning. Oliver and Price did the pitching acts for the two teams and it was a good battle between them, the Shopmen's rejuvenated team however being unable to produce enough scores to win. Cove ran away with Perry at Cove, the scene of the game being switched at the last moment to the Cherry town. The Coveites haven't been defeated this year and the Shop team which plays Cove next Sunday, probably at La Grande, is going to exert itself the players say, to hang up a goat on the Cherry pickers.

Batteries for Cove: Alexander brothers; For Perry: Hanson, Hall, Stoddard and Murphy. The score:
Cove 22 19 1
Perry 1 6 10

Paris, May 14.—Practically a universal demand has just gone up in French sporting circles for the re-opening this spring of all the leading French race courses, Longchamp, Auteuil, Chantilly, Mason-La-Fitte and Deauville, it is insisted, should at least be reopened and the leading events such as the Grand Prix, the Derby, the Diane and the Grand Critérium should be run. Backers of the movement insist that not only would the re-opening of the courses fail to present any inharmonious contrast with the great struggle in which France is engaged, but they insist that the struggle itself has made the best re-opening of the courses all the more imperative. Countless thousands of the best horses of France have already been killed in the war, they point out. Thousands more must yet die, and it is imperative that France should not allow the lapse for a single moment her efforts at improving the breeding of horses. With the close of the war, France will have greater need than ever before for rearing the best horses possible.

The Stove That Cooks the King's Dinner is within Your Reach

The Hughes Electric Range is used in the kitchens of Royalty and wealth. Yet the moderate home can afford it.

The electric stove is no longer a toy. The Hughes Electric Range beats the gas and coal stoves in every style of cooking. It roasts perfectly. It bakes bread, pies, etc., excellently. Or, it gives a low, slow heat for stews, corned beef, etc. It surpasses even charcoal for broiling. It is supremely the lady's stove—no gas, smoke, soot, odor, ashes. No waste of heat, no overheated kitchen.

Hughes Electric Ranges

Come and see this wonderful stove.

Eastern Oregon Light & Power Co.

We have two of these justly celebrated ranges in La Grande. Each has been used by a reliable and substantial family. We refer you to either of these users as to whether the Hughes makes good all claims and the cost of operation.
