

HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY CHANGED

PRESENT HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY WHICH IS LARGELY BROKEN UP THIS YEAR.

Reading from left to right. Top row—Principal Chas. E. Olsan, Roy S. McIntosh, Grace E. McMillan, Stella P. Hunter, Bert W. Harris. Second row—Janet Hershey, Flora M. Koch, John Girdler, superintendent of La Grande; Lucile Ramsdell. Third row—Sarah Riddle, Belle B. Edwards, Minnie Holman. Fourth row—James W. Lakin, E. A. McEachron.

When commencement occurs to-morrow night at the high school auditorium, the present high school faculty will be largely "dissolved" as it were. Several are to be married, many have resigned for other positions, and but a few are returning. Among those who it is anticipated will return next year are the following:

Superintendent Girdler, Principal Olsan, Profs. Harris, McEachron, McIntosh, Miss Edwards, Miss Koch and Miss McMillan. Invitations are out for the commencement exercise tomorrow evening. The services will be fitting for the occasion.

SHRINERS WILL HAVE CONCLAVE

Seattle, Wn., May 25.—When the hundred thousand or more nobles of the Shrine and their wives arrive in Seattle in July for their annual Imperial Council—the biggest convention the Northwest has ever seen—the Eastern visitors will find a separate day designated for each section of the Northwest in special tribute to its importance.

British Columbia, Tacoma, Portland, Spokane, Idaho, Montana, Everett, Bellingham, Grays Harbor, Bremerton and the Inland Empire will be honored in this fashion. The cities which will have days named for them will include Tacoma, Portland, Spokane, Everett, Bellingham. For the other sections special events and days will be marked in order that each day may be drawn particularly to the attention of the tourists.

Details of the tentative program as announced by Nile Temple include an entire week's events beginning Sunday, July 11. On that day, when the special trains are arriving, religious services will be held with Bishop Frederick W. Keator, Potentate of Affi Temple, Tacoma, and Rev. M. A. Mathews, Imperial Council Delegate from Nile Temple, respectively, in charge. Both clergymen are prominent members of the Shrine order.

The Imperial Special, bearing the Imperial Potentate and his Divan, will arrive Monday and will be escorted through the business streets in a decorated parade. Dinners, theatre parties, receptions, automobile trips and band concerts will comprise the day. On Tuesday the official opening of the Imperial Council will take place, following the close of the week's first big pageant, a parade including all the Shrine patrols, bands and delegates.

On this day the nobles and their wives will be taken on a complimentary trip to the Puget Sound navy yard; a lawn fete will be given in one of the parks; a mammoth dancing party and grand ball and other events. Wednesday will be marked with an evening parade, exhibition drills by the Arabic patrols, luncheons, dances, and receptions.

The Tacoma, Everett, Bellingham and Seattle yacht clubs will combine Thursday in a complimentary launch ride which will be tendered the nobles and their families on Puget Sound, and on the same day a monster barbecue will be held in one of the parks, a banquet and massed band concert, together with a regimental review. Complimentary trips to Mount Rainier, and on Puget Sound to Everett, Bellingham, Anacortes, Port Townsend and other points, will be taken Friday, the entire day being devoted to sightseeing about the Northwest.

Saturday will witness the closing of the week, when a decorated automobile pageant, allegorical parade, and Mardi Gras will be held, and the city will be illuminated in a magnificent electrical display.

But They Don't Ever Do It.

After a long Sunday school lesson and longer sermon, the clergyman requested the children to remain seated, as he had the extreme pleasure of introducing them to the reverend Mr. Simpton, who would now address them.

The little tots wistfully watched their elders file slowly out of church while tempting visions of a hot chicken dinner and other Sunday goodies appeared to their fresh young imaginations, and fresher appetites.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson came slowly forward. "My dear children," he said fastidiously rubbing his hands together. "I—well, the fact is, I hardly know what to say"—

MRS. DUNIWAY SCORES WILSON

Portland, May 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, members of the National Advisory Council of the Congressional Union for woman suffrage, comments upon the attitude of the president toward Pennsylvania Suffragists.

"President Wilson has always declared that he could not help woman suffrage in Congress, where he has most power to help it, because of his 'passion for local self-government,'" says Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway. "He has a great opportunity now," she continues, "to help in the states, where he thinks it ought to be settled; and his refusal to accord five minutes time out of a day in Philadelphia or two minutes out of a week in Washington, does not seem to indicate any extraordinary passion on the subject of self-government for women."

"It must be remembered that since women have not the ballot and cannot express their wishes by means of the vote, their petitions and requests have a peculiar claim on the consideration of any official who regards himself as the representative of the disfranchised as well as the enfranchised classes. Their deputations have all the more claim on the President's courtesy."

"While the women realize the grave matters that now occupy the attention of President Wilson, they do not think that a sufficient excuse for discriminating against them in favor of aliens, for giving hours of time to newly naturalized citizens and not one minute to American born women seeking their enfranchisement."

"It is, in the first place," says Mrs. L. W. Therksesen, former press chairman of the State Equal Suffrage Association, "an indignity that American born women should have to seek their enfranchisement from aliens. It is doubly humiliating that the President of the United States, who is supposed to represent all the people, non-voting as well as voting, should deem it fitting to devote hours of his time to aliens and not fifteen minutes to American women. The President has said that if woman suffrage comes at all it should come through the states; but when he is asked to give a few minutes to speak even one word to further the campaign for woman suffrage in Pennsylvania or in his own state of New Jersey he remains significantly silent on the subject."

"Only last Sunday I was asked to pay the naturalization fees of four foreign men, and I did so," said Mrs. Harry Lowenburg, a member of the Philadelphia Council of Jewish women. "I was glad to help them to citizenship, but I see no reason why I, who have at least as much interest in the community as foreign men should be forced to remain disfranchised. We are sorry to say that we have been forced to learn a sad lesson in the game of politics—that four thousands alien men with the vote weigh more than the most active and public spirited women of Pennsylvania without the vote."

voice from a back pew lisped out: Pleath, thir, juth they 'amen' and sit down."

AMERICANS SAVE $100,000,000. Immense Sum Usually Spent Abroad to Be Saved or Distributed.

New York, May 25.—It is estimated that as a result of the European war from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 which heretofore was spent abroad by American tourists will remain in the United States. Statistics show that approximately 150,000 Americans have been in the habit of going abroad during the summer months each year. It is estimated that each one spend on an average from $500 to $1,000 on the trip. Of the total amount expended by Americans abroad fully two-thirds goes to pay hotel bills and transportation. It is estimated that no less than $5,000,000 is given away in the form of tips. The balance of the vast expenditure goes for amusements and various incidentals. The payments for steamship fares alone amounted to something like $20,000,000. At least ninety per cent of those who went abroad in former years will remain at home. A large proportion of them will devote their time and their money to seeing America. Not only will this result in adding to the prosperity of the United States through the fact that a hundred million dollars ordinarily transferred abroad will be kept at home, but it is predicted also that it will give permanent impetus to the "See America first" movement and will develop among the people of this country a better appreciation of the scenic and other attractions of their own land.

muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted parts and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine."
