TRIBUTES TO DEAD HEARD.

red folds are emblematic of the rich pure blood in the defence of our time-honored and blood-purchased heritage, including the inherent rights of men to live, to be free and to pursue the ideal of happiness guaranteed to them by the Constitution of our United States.

The white speaks to us of the pure life, mind, lips and conduct which to characterize every one who seeks shelter beneath its folds. No man can be false to himself and at the same time be true to our flag.

The blue waves out an urgent call for your loyalty, allegiance and devotion. The dedication of your very best to the common good.

The stars speak of "Him, in whom we live and move and have our being;
He who rules in sovereign majesty over the world and system of worlds.
Whose eyes look out in every direction of the star-point watching over the deeds of men and nations unto whom, you and I are responsible for the use we make of our two-fold heritage—our nation and life.

"Anything, therefore, which militates against the glory and grandeur of our flag, is our common enemy.
Any influence which militates against the worthy institutions protected by
