What a Difference One Word Makes

By simply saying "Barrington Hall" when you order coffee this is what you will get:

Sixty to seventy cups to the pound,

Coffee that costs you less than three quarters of a cent a cup.

Coffee that nobody ever matched.

Coffee with a delicious lingering after taste.

Coffee with the bitter chaff and dust removed.

Say Barrington Hall Coffee

Stockmen to Motor Through Interior.

Baker, June 1.—Leaving Baker by auto Saturday, June 12, local members of the Oregon Cattle and Horse Raisers' association will motor through Grant and Harney counties to attend meetings of the association to be held at Canyon City on June 14 and at Burns on June 16. S. O. Correll, secretary of the organization, believes that some 30 Baker stockmen will go on the trip, and states that the Burns and Canyon City people are making plans to entertain the local men in good style.

At a meeting of the local association held Saturday night, the name of Charles Wendt was recommended to Governor James Withycombe for appointment as county stock inspector.
