

UNION FALLS ONCE MORE

ELEVEN-SIX SCORE RESULTS YESTERDAY

Many Runs and Many Errors Result From Holiday Contest

La Grande put Union to the cleaners last evening in a non-league game at the ball park. Final score, La Grande 11, Union 6. McMillan assayed the pitching role, and although it must be admitted Mac has been a pitcher of great merit in his day, he has not been pitching much of late, and had to give away before the game was over. Garrick performed creditably for La Grande on the mound and after he had the game pickled securely, Price finished the game.

White, the Indian covered first base at the outset, and again connected with the ball every time up, lacing out grass burners that the fielders couldn't handle twice and scoring three clean-cut singles out of five times up. Mc Innis lead the La Grande batters with two double baggers and Pidecock who played lead yesterday, also produced two extra-base clouts. Singles was the best Union batters could do.

Garrick struck out five, Price two, McMillan four White one. La Grande got one man to first on errors and Union four.

The score:
La Grande R. H. E.
Union 11 8 11
6 9 5

The score by innings:
La Grande 0 0 2 0 4 3 0 2 x-11
Union 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 1-6

The batteries: For Union, McMillan, Meserve White and Straub. For La Grande, Garrick, Price and Richter. Umpire Horan.

The Haynes Automobile Company of Kokomo, Indiana, has just announced the new 1915 Haynes "Light Six" cars which consist of two models with three different body styles. Model 34 is finished in a five passenger touring car listing at $1385, and a three passenger roadster listing at $1485. The wheelbase is 121 inches and the weight is 2950 pounds. The Model 35 is finished in a seven passenger body and has a wheelbase of 127 inches with a weight of 3050 pounds.

"In anticipation of being unable to fill all of the 1915 season orders," states A. G. Seiberling, General Manager of the company, "the new 1915 models have been developed and are now ready for distribution. The new cars contain many refinements that will give added comfort and luxury."

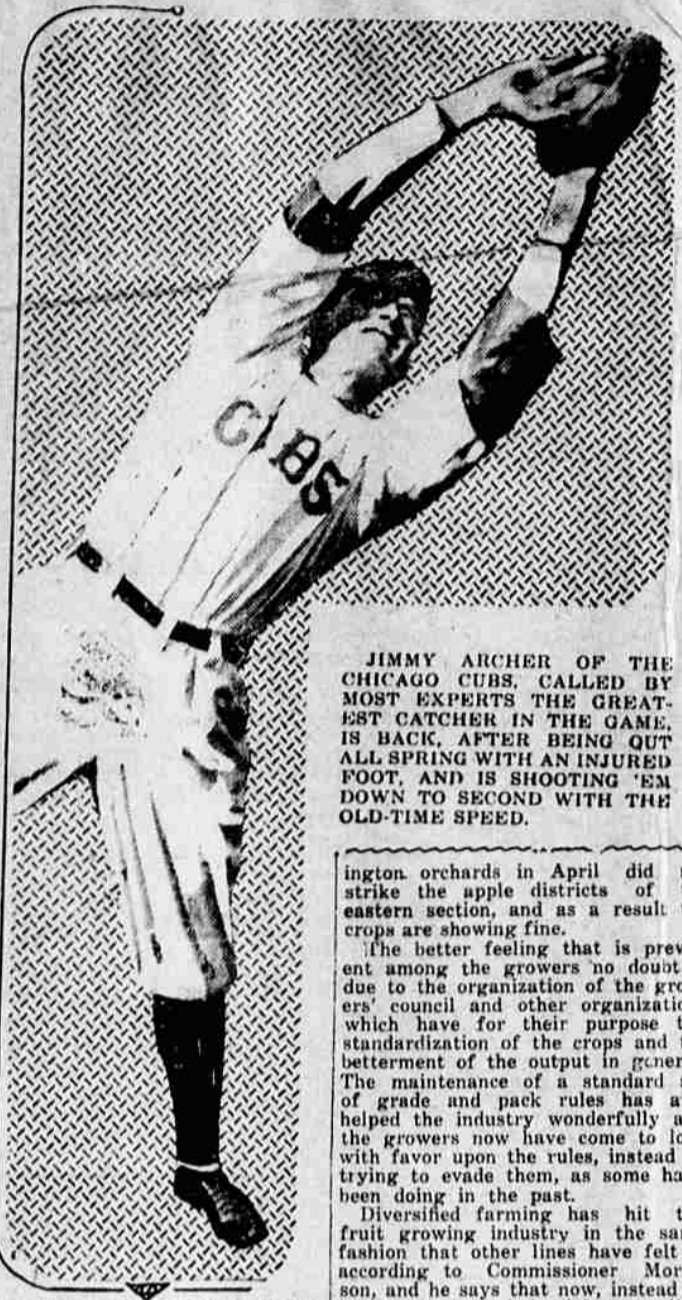

National Child Labor Conference

San Francisco, May 29.—Scoring the belated action of the lawmakers in southern states regarding child labor laws and branding the mills of the south as costing to high a toll of human life, Wiley H. Swift, Secretary of National Child Labor Committee in North and South Carolina, today delivered a stirring address on the need of legislative guards against child workers.

"When I consider what I am forced to conclude that up to the present we have not progressed very far," declared Mr. Swift. "North and South Carolina have a larger per cent of child workers in the manufacturing industry than any other state in the country. If the person engaged in these industries should march by, every 10th person would be a child under 16. These children leave school forever at 12—often younger in North Carolina where there is practically no enforcement—to work 11 hours a day in our factories.

"Public opinion grows slowly and law halts behind public opinion. The people of those states as a whole deplore the conditions under which chilington orchards in April did not strike the apple districts of the eastern section, and as a result the crops are showing fine.

The better feeling that is prevalent among the growers no doubt is due to the organization of the growers' council and other organizations which have for their purpose the standardization of the crops and the betterment of the output in general. The maintenance of a standard set of grade and pack rules has also helped the industry wonderfully and the growers now have come to look with favor upon the rules, instead of trying to evade them, as some have been doing in the past.

Diversified farming has hit the fruit growing industry in the same fashion that other lines have felt it according to Commissioner Morrison, and he says that now, instead of having to buy their dairy supplies, their hay and grain, the growers are raising their own alfalfa, hay and grain, and are keeping hogs and chickens and cows. They have discovered that they can realize greater net profits by this scheme, and also can better their output of fruit, rather than reduce it.

Shriner Tourists Expected.

Seattle, Wash., May 29.—Seventy-five per cent of the tourists who visit the California exposition and do not intend to remain in the southern state for a long period of time, will return home through the Pacific Northwest, according to prominent Shriners returning through California.

While the past winter's "crop" of tourists has not been up to the usual standard, due to business conditions, the tide has already turned and immediately after June 1st the hordes will begin to roll in. The European War has compelled many to turn westward for their travel and the entire Northwest will benefit immeasurably from it this summer. At least 100,000 nobles with wives and children will visit Seattle in July for the Imperial Council session of the Shrine. One railroad has already contracted for sixty special trains to bring the hosts to Puget Sound, and a total of more than 150 specials is estimated.

In returning home these tourists will go via Tacoma, Portland and San Francisco, except such delegates as come direct from the south, who will go home by the northern route. Elaborate preparations are being made in these cities for the entertainment of the nobles.

Seattle will spend more than $100,000 in giving the Shriners the time of their lives while in the Northwest. Side trips, extensive social fetas, parades, pageants, band concerts, balls and similar events are already scheduled for the week.
