IMBLER NEWS

Saturday afternoon the boy's team of Alice came down to Imbler and were defeated 9 to 8. On June 5, a "benedict" lineup is coming from Alice to cross bats with a similar team here. No league players are to be permitted to play, as this is to be a select game.

Work on the Norval and Ruckman houses is progressing rapidly. Mr. Ruckman has built a tank house in order to make his new house thoroughly modern. In fact it is a common occurrence for a home in the wheat end of the Grande Ronde valley to be plumbed with a gravity water system.

Saturday was the day for the "annual feed" at the Summerville cemetery and judging by the full baskets which went and the people who returned, past efforts were all surpassed. Charley Squire says he enjoys being "hailed to the cemetery" on proper occasions.

Dr. Winters, district superintendent, came down from La Grande and conducted services at the local M. E. church Sunday evening. The sermon was followed by the quarterly communion.

Joe Loyd and family came down from Flora and are enjoying a few weeks vacation with Mr. Loyd's parents and friends in and near Imbler. Saturday night the local play house presented "Two Vads" in 6 reels, to a crowded house.

Miss Ruby Alford came down Saturday from La Grande and will spend vacation with Grandma Conklin and other relatives and friends in Imbler. Miss Edna Martin will have charge of the primary department at the Bingham school next year. Joe Eshelman will be the principal and will teach the ninth grade and probably seventh and eighth.

Memorial day was observed here by the Imbler bank employees taking a vacation.

Lyle Stringham went to Portland Saturday with a carload of hogs. While there he will visit for a week. His Cousin, Lynn Stringham, is there taking a special music course.

James Buchanan, W. V. Connor, and Radcliffe Henrie were in La Grande Saturday.

Eugene McGoldrich of La Grande, is visiting with his parents near Imbler.

Chicken Pot Pie

The Chef's Favorite By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Some folks think that only "colored mummies" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion. Every member of the family will thoroughly enjoy it.

One fowl cut in joints; 1/2 cup flour; 1/4 teaspoonful salt; black pepper; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder; 1/4 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Cover the fowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste and use to thicken the broth. Remove the fat from the top of the broth if necessary before adding the thickening. Pour this gravy over the fowl, until it is nearly covered, and reserve the rest to serve apart. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt, three times; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough, less stiff than for biscuits. Put this by spoonfuls over the fowl in the dish, which it should rest upon and completely cover. Let bake about 35 minutes.

When young, tender chickens are scarce, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowl. Veal or lamb prepared in this manner is more appetizing than when served as a stew. Try this and the 89 other delicious recipes in the K. C. Cook's Book, a copy of which may be secured free, by sending the colored certificate packed in the 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder to the JAGUUS MFG. CO., Chicago.
