THIRTY-TWO PEOPLE WITH CIRICILLO'S BAND

Ciricillo's Band Which Appears at Chataqua in Connection With Grand Opera Troupe

Ciricillo and his Italian band from Cleveland will draw large on the coast and all through the west this year, and at the Chataqua when it comes here. The popular band leader and his clever baton are the same inspiration which has heretofore led the troupe of musicians through classic and popular music with the splendid and dash that has charmed the many hearers.

The organization, which has been together for many years are attracting wide-spread attention. Critics acknowledge their ability and the long and hard work of their leader, who has been playing in public since his first position with a cornet at the tender age of eleven, in Genoa,
