

OREGON HAS FINE EXHIBIT

LA GRANDE BANKER HOME FROM THE FAIR.

Canadian and Oregon Institutions Lead All Others in Opinion.

Bubbling over with praise for the Oregon building at the Panama exposition, of California bankers, and with kind words for the whole exhibition, which he claims is entirely out of proportion to the time the average visitor allots to the task of seeing it, F. L. Meyers, cashier of the La Grande National bank is home from San Francisco where he attended the annual meeting of Oregon State Bankers' association and was elected vice president of that institution.

First and foremost, Mr. Meyers reports that of all the men who spoke with authority to the bankers from several states assembled there, none looked upon the future except with optimism. All admitted financial matters were making progress slowly but the future was not discouraging by any means. This was the opinion of such men as Carter H. Glass, chairman of the house committee on banking and currency; John Perrine, federal reserve agent at San Francisco, and a host of men of equal calibre in the world of finance.

"I think the most pleasing thing about the visit," said Mr. Meyers, "is the atmosphere at the Oregon building. It is home-like, you are welcome and made comfortable. With due consideration for Mrs. Meyers I don't know when I have enjoyed a lunch any more than I did the one served there at noon each day by a group of O. A. C. domestic science girls. Tickets for these luncheons are in constant demand and are limited to 80 each day. The Oregon building ranks very high, and only the Canadian exhibits draw greater numbers. Oregon has reason to be proud of her exhibit, indeed.

"While the next convention rests with the executive committee headed by Ed Cusick of Albany and on which T. G. Montgomery of Baker serves, the Portland bankers have invited us there for the next session."

Mignon Today at Sherry's.

Mignon with its duels and dangers, its contracts and its crimes, its gypsy life and its aristocratic environment, the beautiful distances covered by the wanderings of the forlorn pair; its German taverns, its palaces by the sea, its wilderness and its ball rooms and most of all its superb action and photography will make this production with its beautiful heroine, a notable event in La Grande. Motion picture lovers will surely appreciate the great portrayal of Mignon as given by Beatriz Michelina—greatest credit is given by critics to the World Film Corporation for their beautiful production.—Adv.

GREYNA GREEN ARCADE FILM

FIRST CLASS PRODUCTION ON PROGRAM.

Good Vaudeville Accompanies Highly Rated Screen Number.

Marguerite Clark, in the famous romantic comedy "Greyna Green" will be seen on the Arcade screen tonight and tomorrow night. This Famous Player production will be accompanied by good vaudeville.

Marguerite Clark, the dainty and fascinating stage and screen favorite, adds another triumph to her former successes in the Famous Players Film company's four-part picturization of the celebrated comedy-romance "Greyna Green," by Grace Livingston Furniss. This quaint and picturesque play possesses all the varying elements essential to the successful screen-drama—love, sacrifice, humor, mystery and thrill—and is laid in the charming period of the early nineteenth century, when elopements to Greyna Green, a lovers haven in the north of Scotland, added a dash of excitement to many true-love matches.

In "Greyna Green" Marguerite Clark bewitchingly portrays the character of Dolly Erskine, a little English belle and a bit of a flirt, who queens it over the beaux of the realm with sovereign sway, until she loses her heart under circumstances both humorous and dramatic.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, her piquant beauty and elfin grace assist her in making the lovable role of Dolly one of her character creations.—Adv.

members there is something wrong and the fault is not either the home or the lodge, but with the individual.

"Conservation of the school is still another requirement of the true friendship. If lodges do not stand for conservation of the schools then there is something wrong, and I have found it is not with the school and not with the lodges but with the individuals, invariably.

"Then we have fidelity to the church as the last and great requirement of a true friendship. If any lodge member puts his lodge above the church he is not true to his God. The lodges are by-products of the church and we must not place the by-product above the parent."

PENDLETON'S MOOSE LOSE

LA GRANDE TEAM ENTIRELY TOO MUCH SCIENCE.

Pendleton Man Brings Over Team to Be Slaughtered by Moose.

La Grande Moose triumphed over Pendleton Moose yesterday when the P. A. P. team, of Pendleton, was shut out on a local diamond while La Grande Moose garnered six runs. The attendance was fair, but the inter-city fraternal features were always important and the visit was much enjoyed. The La Grande Moose had the best of the argument and kept the visitors confined to second base only. Pidecock, Price and Walden lead in the hitting for La Grande, while Eubank, Moore and Senner were the only visitors to negotiate hits. Senner opened for Pendleton, but lost his bearings and had to be taken out, Geissel taking his place. But the harm was done. Slate struck out 14 men and the visiting pitchers 10 between them. One double play lent class to the game. Dr. Graham, an old leaguer, unequal to the game to the general satisfaction of all. The band was out and all in all it was a big Moose day for all concerned and incidentally some pretty good baseball was played up.

The Lineups:

E. J. Morris, the Pendleton manager, is a member of the La Grande lodge, and Homer Hansett also belongs here. The La Granders go to Pendleton June 27.

SQUIRRELS A SERIOUS PEST

SUMMERVILLE PEOPLE HAVE MUCH TROUBLE.

Fruit in that Section Is Thinned Out by Late Frosts.

Summerville, June 5.—(Special)—There are enough gray ground squirrels in Union county to consume and destroy enough of the fruits thereof to appal an Eastern farmer. To get ride of these rodents is a problem for the county or state to solve. The warfare must be conducted along cooperative lines. Individual efforts of little avail.

Ray Johnson and his sister, Mrs. William Bull, spent a few days in the extreme eastern end of the state last week with relatives.

Fruit in that region was badly damaged by late frosts but enough is left to insure enough for local use. The foothill orchards fared better, escaping with little damage.

Memorial Day was elaborately celebrated at Summerville Saturday in order to give La Grande a chance to observe the day on Monday. Supper was served in the evening to secure funds with which to beautify the cemetery which is said to be one of the finest in the county.

AUTO DELIVERY USED

Wallowa Merchants Send Goods to Homes via Auto Method.

Wallowa, Ore., June 7.—John Bratton, who has been running a general delivery for the several merchants of the town since the first of May, is now using an auto for this work. Last week he purchased a Ford car from Mr. Driver, and has had a delivery bed put on instead of the regular body. Besides making the regular deliveries for the merchants, he will meet the morning train and deliver baggage and express to any part of the city.

Donald McKenzie, the 12-year-old son of Dan McKenzie, broke both bones in his left arm just above the wrist, one day last week. It seems that he had climbed a tree, and the limb which he was on broke, and in the fall he sustained the injury.

Wallowa lost the ball game at Joseph last Sunday by the score of 12 to 4. This gives Joseph first place in the league, with Enterprise second. Joseph has not lost a game up to the present time. Yesterday Enterprise played Alder Slope at Enterprise, and Wallowa played Joseph at Wallowa.
