

Yes Sir--We Sell 5 per cent Below Mail Order Houses

THEN WHY CAN'T WE SELL BELOW ANY SPECIAL SALES? WELL, WE DO.—We have special Sales Prices existing at this store 365 days of the year.—“You can always buy your merchandise cheaper at The United Store,” is a common expression nowadays. That remark stands good, regardless of all conditions of sales.—We are never overloaded—no old stocks from years gone by to cast at you—this is the result of selling our goods right at all times.—We buy for 83 big busy stores, we buy for cash, we sell for cash, we receive better than jobber's discount—the jobber or the middleman we cut out—we cut out the credits, we cut out the deliveries and any other overhead expenses. All of these things cost money—and you pay well for them to the other man. MR. WAGE EARNER OF THE HOME—We sell you first quality merchandise for less money than you pay for any out-of-date goods. When you come in and examine our stocks your words will always be “THE UNITED STORE FOR ME.”

Social Affairs of the Week

Referring back to the order of business about Arabs stealing away at night, it is apropos to say introductory to the Observer society news today that the silent folding of social tents goes merrily on, for lo, is the summer not here; in point of almanac dates, if not in temperature? True, the future holds much of import, but the day of card clubs is rapidly slipping by for three months' repose on the shelf of discard. The fashionable dedication ball at the Elks' home, June 16, the formal reception during the day, the coming chautauqua and its social phases, the motorcycle races, which are due to bring out society, are some of the itemized, underscored, functions for the coming week. Another phase of society this week is the return of co-eds from the various schools of learning.

One of the clubs to disband for the summer this week is the Billikin club, an afternoon sewing club. Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass entertained this association Thursday afternoon, and the members adjourned sine die.

A social and dance was given Wednesday, June 9, by the K. & L. of S., there being an attendance of about 250 members and friends. The social opened with an address by President Stewart, which was followed by a violin and piano accompaniment by Master Floyd Smith and Miss Donna Smith. It received great praise and was followed by a duet by the Misses Allen, also an address by Leonard Huntley, on the "Uplifting of Humanity." The following dancing, in which everybody took part, and then a supper was served by Mrs. Fitzgerald and daughter, Mrs. Lively and daughter, Mrs. Leahman, Mrs. Charleneau, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. Nutter, Mrs. Pryer, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Bryant, and Mrs. Stiles. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent and returned happy but tired after their good time.

Monday evening at her home on Third street, Miss Mattie Green entertained the graduates of the class of 1914 and the graduating class of 1915, of which she is a member, of the Sacred Heart Academy.

A dainty three course dinner was served. The class colors, purple and gold were carried out in the decorations. The place cards were small lawpies.

After dinner an hour or two was spent with games and music. Miss Pearce won the prize for the bean game which was a slipper pin cushion, decorated with forget-me-nots.

Those present of the class of 1914 were Misses Leah Swaberg, Eileen Pearce and Helen Smith, of the class of 1915 were Misses Etha Thomas, Iolanda Kleese and Mattie Cronen. Others present were Miss Aline Somers and Mesdames Frank Chata and M. Cronen.

The annual Sunday School picnic of the First Presbyterian church will be held next Thursday in the park. Vehicles will leave the church at 10:30 taking those who meet there to the park. At 4:30 p. m. the return trips will be made. All of the members and friends of the Sunday School and of the church are urged to attend and enjoy the day. Games for the children will be provided. Everybody bring dinner-baskets well filled. Dinner will be served at 12:30 so the business men and women can come and return to their work. Ice cream and lemonade will be furnished free. Come and enjoy the day, old and young, all come.

A very pleasant surprise was given to Mrs. J. Emigh, at her home on Second street, Tuesday evening just before her departure for Santa Anna, California. The evening was spent in games and music. Those present were: Mesdames Chas. Taal, Chris Wright, Wm. Day, M. A. Fulton, Robert Masterson, Will Pidecock, Will Hamilton, C. Gray and Willard Moss; Misses Murial Moss, May Emigh, and Kathryn Gray, and Lawrence and Donald Gray. At a late hour a two-course luncheon was served, after which everyone wished Mrs. Emigh a pleasant trip and a safe return.

The Lucky Thirteen club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Richardson with Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. G. M. Byrkit as hostesses. The official game of the club, auction bridge, was played and Mrs. McAllister proved the winner for the afternoon. The Richardson home was daintily decorated for the occasion and the ladies enjoyed themselves immensely. Refreshments were served after the games had been ended. A color scheme of pink and white was used, with carnations as the predominant flower. This was the last afternoon gathering for the season, and Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Byrkit took advantage of this occasion to add especial touches to the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle of Island City entertained the Hill Neighborhood club and the San Souci club jointly Wednesday evening at their home in the suburban town. The favors for highest scores went to Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard and to Frank Patterson. The evening was greatly enjoyed by the members of the two social clubs.

The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian church was held at the home of Miss Leona Wilcock. The main part of the evening was spent in the election of officers, those elected being: Myrtle F. Long, president; Callie Denning, vice president; Annetta Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Abby Green, organist; Leona Finley, assistant organist; Dora Thorne, chorister; Alfred Johnson, corresponding secretary.

Nearly 100 young people representing the various young peoples' societies of the city churches enjoyed the meeting of the Young People's Christian union of La Grande held at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Rev. Edwards of the M. E. church gave a very interesting talk on "The Future Leadership of the Church," the special numbers on the program and the social time following the devotional meeting were also enjoyed very much by those present.

Last evening Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Clark entertained the Kaffee Klatch at the Richardson home. Guests for nine tables were present and enjoyed the evening. At a suitable hour a three-course luncheon was served the guests. At 5:00, Mrs. W. W. Berry won first prize among the ladies and E. E. Bragg first prize among the men. There will be no meeting of this club next week.

The Thursday Auction club was entertained by Mrs. Jay Van Buren this week. Her sister, Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, a former La Grande resident now living at Estacada, was an honor guest. Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe scored highest. This club will not meet again for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Scranton will entertain the San Souci club next Monday evening.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS.

A delightful romance resulted happily on Monday evening, June 7, when Miss Janet Hershey became the bride of Norman W. Frees. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Clark, of the Presbyterian church. The bride was attended by Miss Janet Jones, and the groom was attended by William Adair. Following the ceremony, a dainty supper was served to the bridal party by Mrs. Nellie Neill, at her home on Pennsylvania avenue. The affair was a surprise of all except a few most intimate friends, although it had been rumored for some time that the principals anticipated such a step. Mrs. Frees is a graduate of Denver University, and for two years has been one of La Grande's most popular high school teachers. Mr. Frees is a University of California man. He has been a resident of this city for the past five years, being associated with the George Palmer Lumber company. Mr. and Mrs. Frees left on the evening train via Salt Lake for a month's trip through California. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends after August 1, at 502 Spring street.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. G. Hunter of Island City, Miss Stella Hunter was quietly married to Wilbur Arthur Zurbrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Zurbrich, prominent ranchers living near Island City. The wedding was performed by Rev. St. Sittler of the Union church at Island City and the impressive ceremony was used. This ceremonial was witnessed by only a few of the relatives. Refreshments were served after the wedding and the couple left on the evening train for Portland. On their return they will be at home to their large circle of friends on the Zurbrich ranch. Both are young people who have been raised in this valley and are popular in their circles. Miss Hunter is an accomplished lady and was German teacher in the high school last year, and the groom is part owner in one of the leading farms of the valley.

North Powder, June 12 (Special).—A surprise miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Effie Tally at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tally June 8, at 8 p. m.

The invited guests were Mesdames

Dalton, M. R. Shourds, M. L. Irvine, E. Maharry, Andrew Willis, Minnie Jacobson, A. F. Tally, McClarren; Misses Gladys Olson, Lottie Olson, Iva Hollinger, Josie Hollinger, Velma Tally, Ruth Wright, Dorris Lenhart, Lela McCurry, Jennie Ashby, Celesta Wicks, Dollie Wade, Lola Hutchinson, Diederne Carnes, Iva Hess, Floyd Willis, Ethelene May and the Willis twins.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with evergreen boughs and roses, pink and green being the color schemes. The arch between the parlor and dining room was decorated with climbing roses, evergreen boughs and pennants.

The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music, many beautiful selections were rendered by Mrs. Wright, Miss Ethel Tally and Mrs. Carl Jacobson.

[Later on in the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and the coming marriage of Miss Effie Tally and Homer Carnes, instructor at the O. A. C., was announced. The out of town guests were Mrs. Geo. McDonald, Mrs. Harry Young and Misses Ebba Jacobson, Gladys Scott and Paulina Knauts.

The bride-to-be received many beautiful presents.

Miss Leona Wilcock was hostess at a kitchen shower at her home on C street, given in honor of Miss Anna Morgan, one of the June brides. About 30 were present and Miss Morgan received many useful presents. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess after which those present returned to their home in the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Mrs. Emma Hollingsworth has issued invitations to a few friends to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mayme Gillilan Palmer, to Roy Brooks, June 16th, at 105 N avenue.

VEHRS AT SILVERTHORN'S

Popular Young Man to Handle Camera as Well as Drug Line.

Mr. Herman Vehrs has just returned from a year's study in the drug lines at Philadelphia college of pharmacy and has associated himself with the Silverthorn Family Drug store where he will have full charge of the camera and photographic department which has lately increased in volume so that Mr. Silverthorn has found it very necessary to increase all lines in photographic and camera materials, necessitating the services of a man thorough and competent in the work such as Mr. Vehrs is known to be. Mr. Vehrs will also put in considerable time in the drug and prescription department which he has given much study and will continue in his study of this department in Philadelphia during the school season. He will be pleased to meet his many school and boyhood friends and will do all in his power to give them full attention when they desire anything in drug or camera line.—Adv.

the guilty ones a 38 calibre revolver was found near the Evans store and Mahaffey was shot with a 38-calibre gun. Evidently the robber had dropped the gun at Evans in his endeavor to get away.

One thing is sure, these men will be held until the last particle of evidence against them has been dissipated for the officers feel there is good reason to believe they have the ones who must pay the penalty for having committed murder in cold blood.
