STRAWBERRIES GOING

Many Will Be Caught Napping This Year is Expectation

Because of the shortage of home-grown strawberries it is expected that many housewives are going to be caught napping and not have their berries supplied them for canning. The home crop was about 20 per cent and the market will be cleaned of strawberries in a short time.

Advertise Meet on Pay Check

The Motorace has no firmer friend than the Grande Ronde Lumber Co. Today when pay checks were issued to employees "Speed 'em Up" appeared in prominent letters in one corner and the date of the race was also mentioned. "We did this to remind all of the boys in the camp of the big event" said a member of the company "and also to admonish them not to spend all of their money before the race. Our plant will close down a part of the day to give every one connected with it a chance to attend the races."
