TRESPASS CASES TRIED.

Wenatchee National Forest Most Vigilant Prosecutor.

Portland, Dec. 16.—During the past fire season on the National Forests of Oregon and Washington, there were the usual number of fire trespass cases, but the Wenatchee National Forest in southern Washington took the prize for the number of convictions—seven in all. Four of the cases were the result of burning without a permit, and the other three were due to leaving camp fires burning.

In the case of the Nickles brothers, a fire was started in a slashing without a permit and got away from the men, covering over 60 acres and jumping across the Wenatchee River. The men were arrested, admitted their guilt, and were given the minimum fine and costs. H. B. Smith of Merritt also burned his slashing without a permit, was arrested and paid his fine.

Of the camp fires left, the most serious of the three cases was that caused by a boy member of surveying party. The boy was left alone for a while, and built a camp fire to get warm. When he left, he threw something over the fire to smother it, but as it was in rather deep humus, this was the worst thing he could do. In a day it had developed into a bad fire and burned over 40 acres. The boy's responsibility was shown, he was arrested, confessed, and was fined $10 and costs.

Salem, Ore., Dec. 17.—Plans for the strict enforcement of statewide prohibition, effective January 1, were discussed at a meeting of all of the prosecuting attorneys of the state in the attorney general's office here today. Technical phases of the law were discussed.

For Pedestrians

Don't let your familiarity with traffic breed contempt for its dangers. Don't forget that if you are carrying a large bundle or an open umbrella part of your view may be cut off.

Don't vacillate on the approach of a vehicle. The driver will be better able to avoid striking you if you act normally.

Don't forget that the proper place to cross the street is at the crosswalk.

New York, Dec. 17.—Ad Wolgast hopes to make Leach Cross step some when they mix it ten rounds at the Harlem Sporting club tonight. Wolgast's right arm is well again, he says. Champion Willie Ritchie will meet Young Brown for ten rounds.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
