E. E. KIRTLEY Ladies' Ready-to-Wear

Keep the Kaiser in the Cellar.

(United Press Correspondence) London, Nov. 26.—(By Mail)—The famous bust of the Kaiser presented by the latter to King Edward in 1905 is in the cellar at Windsor Castle. At one time, before the war, the bust reposed on a pedestal at Buckingham Palace. After England joined against Germany it disappeared and its hiding place has just been revealed.

Red Tape Robs Mother of Letter.

London, Nov. 19.—(By Mail)—Scores of incidents of the war have failed to rouse British public opinion more than the official red tape that has just deprived a widowed mother of her dead soldier-son's last letter. The envelope in which the soldier dispatched a letter from the front, just before he was killed was received by the mother. Enclosed was the following notice from the censor:

"Letter destroyed. This pattern of envelope is obsolete and its use is forbidden."

The previous day the war office had notified the mother of death of her son.
