

The always welcome gift-- A KODAK

The gift that keeps the picture story of every youthful interest—School days and sports, the winter and summer outings, the city boy's trip to the country and the country boy's trip to the city. In all these three is fun in the picture taking and afterwards both fun and satisfaction in possession. Our Christmas stock of Kodaks and Brownies is particularly complete. Let us show you.

Joe Eagan states that when his feet begin to itch it is nature's warning to him that it is time to go hunting. His pedals began bothering him terribly at 5:30 this morning and it was not until an hour later when he returned with three ducks that he felt relief. He says that he expended but three shells, which would be an average of one shot to each bird.

For the Family Medicine Chest

Green Bay, Wis., Mrs. Wm. F. Bubolz says: "I always use Foley's Honey and Tar for our children as it quickly breaks up their colds with no bad after effects, and they like to take it."

In this season of coughs, colds and croup, every family medicine chest should be supplied with a good cough medicine that can be relied upon when needed.

Such a family cough syrup is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. This standard medicine has been on the market for years and in many sections was found in every home in the days when doctors were not so handy and when money was scarcer. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is an excellent medicine for coughs, colds, raw or inflamed throat, hoarseness, chest, croup and soreness of the neck, tightness and soreness of the chest, croup and whooping cough. It is an absolutely safe remedy, containing only healing ingredients, and free from any harmful drugs.

CITY GROCERY & BAKERY

The Home of Fancy Groceries

Christmas cheer is spreading over La Grande like the noon day sun.

Did you hear the sleigh bells? One good, old fashioned man was out Sunday with his family enjoying the snow to the fullest.

Along with the heavy snow the crops of candidates is beginning to show.

The Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot club went on their rabbit chase too soon. Think how easy it would have been with the present snow to impede the speed of the jack rabbit.

Frank Lilly has one knocker on the kind of ammunition he sells. When the rabbit drive was on Pat Burns went loaded with Lilly's choicest ammunition, guaranteed to bring down the game no matter how a gun was held. Pat squared himself for a good shot, but the rabbit went on. He looked amazed. Never since the days when he used to pick a squirrel's eye with a rifle had he missed such a shot as that. All morning he shot and missed and could not understand the reason. Inwardly Pat began to believe old age was creeping over him, and like the fiddler who can no longer make his fingers work, there was bitter regret. Deep in the afternoon, when he had shot and missed repeatedly, he examined the shells and found the shot had been removed from every one of them. Pat's nerve got back immediately and the way he "tied into" Jack Horan and others whom he thought guilty would have made a soap box orator envy his vocabulary.
