UNION COUNTY NEWS

(From Elgin Recorder)
Plummer Carlton, Sr., who was a resident of this section some 25 years ago, died at Clarkston, Wash., Dec 5, 1915, after a brief illness from pneumonia. The remains were interred December 9th.
The sly old coyote which has evaded hounds and hunters of the Willow creek section and south end of Pumpkin Ridge for the past three years, has fallen at last, having met his Waterloo Tuesday morning. The pack of hounds belonging to Oliver Kerr and Terry Tuttle performed the task.
Carl Em, the two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hawkins, died suddenly at the family home in this city at 12:00 M. Sunday night. Death was the result of diphtheria. The remains were interred Monday forenoon in the family burial plot in the City cemetery.

J. M. Churchill, for several years a resident of Elgin and veteran of the Civil war, was found dead in his chicken house shortly after noon yesterday by his son Charley.

Jack Keffer and Jake Hallgarth report the killing of a monster bobcat the Gordon Creek section last Sunday. The two gentlemen own a pack of hounds and on that morning started for a coyote chase. Not long after starting the dogs jumped the bobcat and succeeded in treeing the varmint which was soon killed with a rifle.

Mrs. A. H. Parsons and daughter Miss Nellie, returned home yesterday morning from an extended visit with friends and relatives in various points of Utah, which state was their former home. They report a delightful trip.

Miss Norah Brooks returned Monday from La Grande for a short visit with home folks.

(From Union Republican)
Earl Skaggs has been down in the Payette country on a visit this week. Mrs. Sig Cline has been in La Grande recently taking treatment for her eyes.

Operator Mudge has returned to his station at the line Junction and Operator Bullis left this week for another position.

Mrs. Florence Dobbin and daughter Margaret expect to go to Portland about the 28th to remain for a couple of months.

Cashier C. W. Wright of the First National was in Haines Sunday last, attending to some matters prior to his removal to that place.
Gussie Lewin arrived Saturday last from San Francisco and will have charge of the Union Drug store of this place until further notice.

Tom Johnson, of Lower Cove, returned from Portland Wednesday. He attended the fat stock show and brought back some prizes for his exhibits of hogs.

George Baxter is training a bunch of M. I. A. boys at basket ball, and he expects to meet some of the best players of this section during the season. They are practicing at the Smith warehouse hall.

W. T. Wright last week presented to the public schools of Union the fine cabinets of minerals that have for a long time been in the First National Bank building. The cabinets holding the minerals were purchased by the school district.

Kenneth McCormick, of La Grande, deputy county clerk, was in the city over Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bidwell. Mr. McCormick expects to be a candidate to succeed county Clerk E. Wright, who is an aspirant for the nomination for public Utility Commissioner from eastern Oregon.
