IN MEMORIAM.

The soldiers are passing, are passing away, The groups and battalions, the blue and the gray. The roll call has sounded, it falls on the ear That is almost too deadened to answer "I'm here." They've fought their last battle and sung their last song They've joined the Grand Army, a numberless throng Who are singing of peace in the regions of Love And they answer "I'm here," to the roll call above.

George Jacobs has answered the roll call of the Supreme Commander, passing from this to a higher realm, on the 15th of December, 1915, at the age of 81 years. He was a kind husband and father; an obliging, cheerful neighbor and friend.

"A workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word truth."—Second Timothy, 2:15. He was well known and highly respected throughout the city, a man to be relied on for honesty and promptness in business. He was a good soldier. On reviewing his "Certificate of Record" we find that he enlisted from La Salle county, Illinois, August 6, 1862, to serve "three years or during the war," and was mustered into the United States service at Camp Douglas, Ill., Aug 27, 1862, as Sargeant of Capt. George A. Sheridan's Co. C, 88th Reg. Ill. Vol. Infantry, Col. Francis G. Sherman commanding. This regiment was organized in Chicago, Ill., in September, 1862, by Col. Sherman and was known as the "Second Board of Trade Regiment," and was in constant, strenuous action during the three years. He was honorably discharged at Chicago, June 9th, 1865, by reason of the close of the war. He "was constantly with his command during its service, bore a gallant part in all its engagements and rendered faithful and meritorious service to his country at all times."

George Jacobs was born in Franklin county, Indiana, Oct. 12, 1834. His father served in the war of 1812. On July 20, 1858 he was united in marriage to Miss Martha M. Bullock at Ottawa, Ill., from which union were born eleven children, five of whom are living, viz: Eddie F., Minnie M., Annie R., Roy D., and Bert E., who with their aged mother mourn his absence. Mrs. Eddie Brockway and Roy were the only children who were with him to the last as the others are in San Diego and unable to be here. He as a member of, and in 1910 quartermaster of the O. P. Morton Post, No. 36, Dept. of Oregon, G. A. R., and was buried with all honor by his comrades. Owing to the storm the ceremony that would have taken place at the cemetery was performed at the parlors. The services were conducted by Rev. Ford. The floral offerings from his many friends and the Post were beautiful and abundant. —L. I. K.

Elgin Farmers Butcher Hogs

One of the largest slaughtering of hogs to be recorded in this section for some time took place at the Hindman farm on the Flat Monday when W. B. and Luther Hindman butchered 50 head, says the Recorder. All were in prime condition and had been fattened for the market. Market conditions have been such the past few weeks that the owners refused to sell, concluding they could secure better returns by butchering and baconing the lot.

The work of slaughtering was completed Tuesday and required a force of several men. The following day the hogs were quartered and cut up.

"Old Dobbin" is not out of business yet. Automobiles do not act right when pulling sleighs and besides one cannot attach bells around the loins as is possible with old faithful Dobbin.
