ONE DELIVERY CHRISTMAS.

Postoffice Will Serve City on the Holiday.

La Grande's postoffice will be open on Christmas from 9 to 10 o'clock in the morning. One city delivery will be made, but that is all. The rural routes will run as usual on Christmas day. It is suggested, and this suggestion is made by the Observer and not the government, that a fine way to promote good cheer and do something for which you will feel good, is to meet the mail carrier Christmas morning with a glad smile and a cigar. He will appreciate it.

The Christ That Was, and Is and Is to Come.

Many there be that talk of the Christ, The babe in the manger born, But few there be that know the Christ As he arose on Easter Morn. See Romans 8—13.

Many there be that talk of the Christ That died to save the lost, But few there be that know the Christ As he came at Pentecost. See St John 14—16 to 20.

Many that talk of a history Christ, The man of Galilee— But few there be that know the Christ Who from sin has set them free. See Acts 3—26.

They talk of the Christ they have read about In stories, old and new, But not of the Christ they sought and found.

The Spirit good and true. See Romans 9—9, 10 and 11.
