Club alley bowling records have been severely threatened the past few days. Eddie Houck came within one pin of duplicating the alley record hung up by Don Scott last year, in a matched game a few days ago. Claude Walden has been crowding the record too. Houck's best performance was a mark of 287, but just to prove it wasn't an accident he also bowled 280 once, and 277 once within the past few days. mark of 275 once and 280 another time.

Interest in the bowling league has increased of late. Two tallenders, the O.-W. and the West's have dropped out leaving four closely bunched teams. These now stand as follows:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Scranton	6	2	.750
Alley Rats	4	3	.571
Cove	5	4	.555
Oliver's	3	3	.500

Some of the high averages made during the bowling league season disclose that there are many consistent bowlers in La Grande. Note for instance these records:

Bowler	Games	T'l Pts.	Aver.
Houck	27	5065	185
Slate	21	3723	177
Burl Conley	27	4445	163
Strong	27	4405	163

Next week there will be an interchange of battle between the Baker squad and the La Grande all-stars. One game will be played at each town.
