EAT A SQUARE MEAL AND NOT FEAR INDIGESTION

There are hundreds of people in La Grande who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the Observer that the Newlin Drug Co., is selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable dyspepsia remedy will relieve the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness, or the general played-out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve, it aims to cure.

Newlin Drug Co., can tell you of many well known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit. No other dyspepsia remedy has made so large a percentage of cures as Mi-o-na. It is so large that Newlin Drug Co., stands ready to refund the price to any customer when it does not help.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in La Grande today praising Mi-o-na because it does what it is advertised to do. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na, they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering.—Newlin Drug Co. 11-9-5

ANNABEL LEA FOUNDATION FOR AVENGING CONSCIENCE

BLANCH SWEET AND HENRY B. MARSHALL IN "AVENGING CONSCIENCE" AT ARCADE LATER IN THE MONTH.

Much interest is being manifested here over the coming January 12 and 13 to the Arcade theatre of D. W. Griffith's supreme achievement, and so styled by the producer of "The Birth of a Nation" "Avenging Conscience."

It is Mr. Griffith's second wonder picture and has the same cast as that other marvelous Griffith production, "The Birth of a Nation." Orton E. Goodwin and Sol Baum leased the Heilig Theatre in Portland to show the picture for one week. Capacity audiences were the rule, while on the last two days of the engagement hundreds were turned away. As a result of their success, Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Baum purchased the Oregon rights for "Avenging Conscience" at a price said to be higher than paid in many years for any other photo-play.

The cast includes Blanche Sweet, Henry B. Yalhall, Mae Marsh, Spottiwode Aitken, Robert Harron, Ralph Lewis, George Siegman, Josephine Crowell and many others of note.

"Avenging Conscience" is a picturization of Edgar Allen Poe's "Annabel Lea" and "The Telltale Heart."

For many weeks "Avenging Conscience" occupied the screen at the Strand theatre, New York. In Seattle, at the Melbourne, it is asserted it was accorded larger patronage than was accorded the other Griffith masterpiece, "The Birth of a Nation," both running at the same time.

Griffith himself says "Avenging Conscience" is my supreme achievement. It is a greater picture than "The Birth of a Nation."

Mr. Griffith is the first man to attempt to make a motion picture production of Poe's works. The weird genius of the author has been exemplified by a picture fully as weird.

The story is a terrible picturization of the power of conscience. It illustrates the working of a diseased mind. It shows that mind fitting from heaven to hell. The clash between intellectuality and natural emotions results in a hypothetical series of dramatic incidents. The cast speaks for the acting.

by Dr. Kilmer many years ago, is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

Swamp-Root is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs. It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses. It is not recommended for everything. According to verified testimony it is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

If you suffer, don't delay another day. Go to your nearest druggist now and get a bottle. All drug stores sell it in two sizes—fifty cents and one dollar.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the La Grande Observer.—Adv. 1-4-16

Patti and Her Partners.

The novel manner in which the famous prima donna Patti on one occasion chose her partners at a dance is related by Mr. Leslie Ward in his reminiscences. Mr. Ward went to a certain dance at Lancaster Gate. "Patti," he says, "was sitting in the middle of the room looking angelic and surrounded by a host of admiring men. We were each given a miniature bugle. Patti had one also, on which she sounded a note, and whoever repeated it exactly was to gain her as a partner in the dance. The men advanced in turn. Some blew too high and others too low until one and all gave up in disgust. At last my turn came. I was trembling with eagerness and excitement and determined to dance with Patti or die. I hit the note and gained my wait, and the applause was great as I carried off my prize."

Jefferson Was a "Sloppy" Dresser.

In dress President Jefferson was governed by comfort rather than by elegance. "Pride costs more than hunger, thirst and cold," he used to say, and as he lived in an epoch that witnessed a mighty revolution in men's clothing as well as in men's government, monarchy's cues and velvets giving way to short hair and the useful, ungainly pantaloons, only the watchfulness of his body servant saved him from unbelievable anachronisms of costume. Indeed, in later life, at Monticello, where this democrat ruled absolute king, he often wore the garments of several different periods together, like superimposed geologic strata or the historic remains in the Roman Forum.—Helen Nicolay in Century Magazine.

The Soft Answer.

The saving sense of humor: "I am filled with disgust and indignation!" began an angry caller on a business man.

"Well, well," interrupted the business man, "sit down and we'll talk it over. You will be just as full seated and a lot more comfortable." How could disgust and indignation continue in the face of such a greeting?—Youth's Companion.

His Excuse.

"Uncle Mose, your first wife tells me that you are three months behind with your alimony."

"Yes, Jedge. Ah reckon dat am so. But, yo' see, it's jes' dis way: Dat second wife of mine ain't turned out t' be the worker that Ah thought she was gwine t' be."—Detroit Free Press.

The Superior Humorist.

It is the mark of the superior humorist that he arouses thought as well as laughter, and George Meredith held this to be the test of true comedy of the loftier type.—Brander Matthews in Harper's Magazine.

Threads of Khaki.

If a thread is pulled out of a khaki coat, unraveled and examined closely the khaki shade will be found to be composed of threads of bronze, light olive green, lavender and brown.

The Past.

Patience—Do you ever look back over the past? Patrice—Why, bless your heart, that's the only way one can look at the past!—London Mail.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Swamp-Root Save Kidney Sufferers.

You naturally feel secure when you know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.
