The Levy-Vogel drug store has undergone some extensive changes. A mezzanine floor has been built for office and storage purposes. This is a feature that gives much needed room to the store. On the main floor new fixtures have been put in. The soda fountain is in place, being commodious and up to date, and show cases have been entirely rearranged, giving a crisp and new appearance to the place. "We have spared no expense to make the store attractive and convenient, not only for ourselves but for the public as well" said Manager Levy today.

PERSONALS

Mrs. D. H. Detchon, wife of a Boise newspaper man, is here to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Clark. The family gathering is also made the merrier by the presence of Mrs. M. E. Hallett, wife of the late railroad builder who was known in early railroading. Mrs. Hallett now lives at Lewiston. She is a sister of Mr. Clark.

Mrs. Herbert Browning and son Harold returned last evening from a holiday visit with relatives in Enterprise. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Browning of San Francisco who have been in Enterprise and are now on their way home. Miss Dorothy Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers left last evening for Portland to resume her work in St. Mary's Academy. She is now in her second year of the course.

CO-OPERATION IS ASSURED

SHERRY THEATRE PROPRIETOR WISHES TO RAISE STANDARD

Will Join the Arcade to Promote Quality in the Movie Shows.

After reading the interview in last evening's Observer given out by Mrs. H. B. Letter, one of the new owners of the Arcade theatre, Mr. Trull of the Sherry theatre announced his readiness at all times to co-operate with the Arcade management in anything that will tend to betterment of pictures in La Grande, and will use effort to maintain the high standard of the Sherry theatre, which has been pronounced in the past.

When asked for announcement of the coming attractions Mr. Trull replied that a summary of high grade productions at the Sherry now listed would take up too much space, but he furnished the following partial list of the advance bookings for his theatre:

- Fox Features.
- The Family Stain—Frederick Perry.
- Carmen—Theda Bara.
- The Broken Law—William Farnum.
- The Galley Slave—Theda Bara.
- The Blindness of Devotion—Robert Mantell.
- Pathe Gold Rooster.
- The Menace of the Mute—Arnold Daly.
- Nedra—Faria Marinoff.
- The House of Fear—Arnold Daly.
- Mary's Lamb—Richard Carle.
- Henry W. Savage successes including Excuse Me, Madam, Everywoman, and The Merry Widow.
- Metro Productions.
- My Madonna—Olga Petrova.
- One Million Dollars—William Fawcett.
- The Woman Pays—Valli Valli.
- A Yellow Streak—Lionel Barrymore.
- Mr. Trull also urges everyone to look out for Charlie Chaplin in his burlesque on Carmen.
