

Most Dealers Stretch the Prices but forget to give you stretch in the rubber

The value of any piece of rubber goods depends on the rubber quality. We give you the newest, livest, stretchiest rubber, moulded and vulcanized under the most modern processes guaranteeing the longest life and the longest wear at prices that have not been stretched. This is one of the safest stores in the country today to buy rubber goods because we truthfully represent them and their values are apparent.

At least one man who weighs over 200 pounds has sore spots for Secretary Clarke of the Y. M. C. A. Instead of leaving the snow piled in front of the building, like a good citizen should do, Mr. Clarke became energetic and had the sidewalk nicely cleaned. That night a little snow fell, and the following morning falling was good in front of the Y. Secretary Clarke will be in bad until the sore spots heal.

CHICKEN ET AL 25c. Higher Price Advertised Yesterday Was An Error.

Bargains—well, listen to this: 30 per cent reduction on the big chicken banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Friday at 6:15 p. m. By an error the price stated yesterday was 35c but the committee wants it clearly understood that the price is, and always was, two-bits, 25c.

At the close of the banquet there will be a mass meeting for the discussion of plans and the organization of citizens for the enforcement of the prohibition law. All who wish to help in this movement are requested to be present.—George Huntington Currey, Secretary.
