

For Cold Feet

Sufferers from cold feet, if they get along without a hot water bottle, miss a lot of comfort that should be theirs.

A Hot Water Bottle costs little if purchased here. Of course, our best ones are the kind to buy, because they are made of heavier rubber and have reinforced seams which make them more durable. We have just received a fresh lot from the factory.

$1.00 to $2.50.

Last night's snowfall was one of the biggest of the year and considerable difficulty was experienced today in getting tracks cleared. At the depot large platform space was cleared with the use of wheelbarrows, workmen hauling the snow away. Fortunately, there was little wind, and the light particles were not disturbed much until they had time to settle. A hard wind this morning would have created great havoc.

W. C. Cusick, of the North Powder section, is a business visitor in La Grande today. Mr. Cusick is locally known as a botanist, and it is a probable fact that he is known in the scientific world in this particular branch of research by a larger number than the entire population of eastern Oregon. He is recognized among many of the institutions of the east as being one of the best, if not the best, botanical authority in the northwest.

TRY BARRINGTON HALL COFFEE

Words like "Best" and "Highest Quality" can be used rightly and wrongly, to describe any coffee.

It means nothing to say that Barrington-Hall is the best coffee, but it does mean something to know it through personal experience.

The fineness of your taste will afford the best proof of Barrington-Hall supremacy. By simply saying Barrington-Hall Coffee when you order, this is what you will get:

Sixty cups to the pound. Coffee that costs you less than 3-4 of a cent a cup. Coffee that nobody ever matched. Coffee with a delicious lingering after taste. Coffee with the bitter chaff and dust removed.
