NEW METHODS TO RULE QUIZES

EIGHTH GRADERS TO USE BOOKS FOR REFERENCE

State Superintendent Inaugurates Radical Departure.

In the May and June eighth grade examinations a new plan will be tried in testing the pupils in the subjects of U. S. History and Civil Government, according to a statement issued today by State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. A. Churchill. During the examination the pupils will be allowed to refer to their text books, but the questions will be so framed as to test the ability of the pupil in expressing what he has learned in clear, concise language. The advantages of such a plan are, that it permits the teacher to emphasize the historical events which she considers most important; it gives the trained teacher greater freedom so that she can do a much higher quality of work than simply helping the pupils to "cram" for an examination; it frees the teacher and the pupils from so teaching and studying as to make the examination the end; it tends to give the pupils power of expression and eliminates the memorizing of unimportant dates and facts.

"There is always danger," said

Superintendent Churchill, "of the examination system developing a question and answer method of teaching. Any plan whereby the examination becomes the end is unpedagogical. With this new plan, if the teacher will adopt it for the pupils' monthly tests, they will learn by the close of the year how to use the text as merely a reference work in writing their final papers. The questions will be so worded that it will be impossible for the pupil to copy any amount from the text book, but he will find help by turning to it to refresh his memory on some point that has escaped him just for the moment. When writing an examination a pupil often finds that he can not recall the answer to a question. He is then liable to become so nervous and frightened that he will fall in the entire examination. This is really the common-sense way to prepare a pupil for his work in the every day world, for if a man has to write an article or prepare a paper on any subject, he does not attempt to depend upon his memory for the proof he wishes to use from various sources to substantiate his statements rather, he has on his table a number of reference works dealing with the subject upon which he is writing. The eighth grade examinations, to a very large extent, set the standard for teaching, and I am very confident that this new plan will strengthen the work in the eighth grade and give the pupil much more power and confidence than he gains from the memory tests. If his class standing has been high during the year and his English work what it should be, he will pass a good examination. If his class work has been below par, the open book will be of no help to him during the short hour of the examination."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Most Effective.

"I have taken a great many bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and every time it has cured me. I have found it most effective for a hacking cough and for colds. After taking it cough always disappears," writes J. R. Moore, Lost Valley, Ga. Obtainable everywhere.

MRS. WILSON FUND DENIED.

Baker Club Declines to Join Campaign for Memorial Work.

Baker, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Baker will not assist in the movement of wives of Washington officials to sell calendars in memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson to raise funds for a memorial in carrying on her work of educating mountaineer children of the Southern Appalachians.

The Alpha Club was asked to dispose of the calendars just at the close of its Red Cross stamp campaign, and the club declined that a second campaign so soon after the first would not be effective, so the memorial calendars were returned.

W. S. Young, Behind Social Throne.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Warren S. Young.—Ever hear of him? He's the "man behind the throne" in Washington. About 60, wearing a comfortable old black working coat, he is the man who decides who shall and shall not attend affairs of state in the White House. He knows all the high brows, the elite, the old families and the climbers in Washington—and how to treat them. His is the order upon which invitations are extended to all guests of the Executive Mansion, and his is the order which excludes hundreds. His is the task of deciding with whom to place the Greek minister at the coming Diplomatic dinners. There is one dinner for the Allies and one for the central powers. Young, for the first time in his official experience, was sore perplexed.

BIG WHEAT CROP SOLD

Drumheller, of Walla Walla, Lets Go of 200,000 Bushels.

Walla Walla, Jan. 10.—Closely following the rise in Eastern prices, in large measure due to the increasing European demand, the lid popped off the local wheat market Friday and Saturday, with all dealers buying and scores of good sized lots offered. Before the close of business last night, it was estimated that approximately and practically all club had been sold, at prices ranging from 88 to 90 cents on Friday, to 90 cents and a shade better on Saturday.

Topping the list of big lots sold yesterday is the George Drumheller crop of 200,000 bushels, nearly all club wheat, which it is said brought 90 cents net to the owner. Mr. Drumheller's crop last season as well as for several years past, was the biggest individual crop in this section of the state, and it's sale has always caused a stir in the local market. Single checks written for its purchase in the past have been extensively and effectively advertised.

They have claimed to be, without challenge, the largest individual wheat crop purchase checks written in this country. Photographic reproductions of the checks have been printed in many different pamphlets and always have favorably attracted the attention of all farmers and dealers.

The buyer of this big lot of wheat Saturday was the Jones-Scott Company, which has bought the Drumheller crops for several seasons. At 90 cents per bushel, the check for the crop this time will be about $180,000. Last year the check was for $200,262.46.

The Drumheller wheat is stored in several different warehouses and it will require weeks for its removal.

Friends and Friends

(Indianapolis News)

Who was it said: "Friends long separated should not meet?" Whoever it was went on to say that tastes and dispositions change, our interests are no longer the same, we have nothing in common, therefore, meetings must bring sorrow instead of joy. No doubt he was a wise man, but like many another wise man, he was mistaken in such a general statement. I know, because I've just tried it out. Out at the Coliseum, in a crowd of thousands, I turned, and looked into a face I had not seen for years, and such joy flared up in my heart as I had not felt for many a day. I didn't stop to remind myself of the advice of a wise man. I went to her as fast as my legs would carry me, and longed to go faster still. The joy on her face was my reward. She evidently was not afraid of the wise saying, either. The years rolled away, like the mist of that glorious autumn morning, leaving the sunlight of true friendship. And how we did talk! If our tastes had changed, then each of us had acquired a new set of equally congenial. We agreed perfectly, on church, suffrage, teacher's pension, and all other topics that came up. And besides, we had old friends to recall, and our families to discuss. We shared joys and sorrows, for we understood each other. That one hour, part of it spent in talking, part of it in sitting quietly, listening to the music and addresses, stands out as the crowning event of a full, happy day. If I could see the wise man who thought he had spoken the whole truth about old friendships, I'd ask him to modify it by saying: "Some old friends should not meet," or better still: "Some people who imagined that they were friends, had better not try meeting after a long separation." For friends also friends, and no separation can change true friendship. Why, I know that when we get to the better land—my friend is sure to go, and I am hoping to—we shall take up our friendship, just where it was interrupted on earth, and I shall clasp her hand, and look deep into her lovely pansy eyes, and the better land will be sweeter, because old friends have met again.

WHY SUFFER WITH BACKACHE, KIDNEYS OR RHEUMATISM NOW?

Letter Tells of Long-looked-for Prescription.
Dear Readers—If I can do any good in the world for others, I wish to do it, and I feel that it is my duty to write about the wonderful results I received from the use of "Anurie." I was suffering from kidney and bladder troubles, scalding urine, backache and rheumatism, and feet and ankles swollen so that at times I could not walk without assistance. Had taken several different kinds of kidney remedies but all failed. I sent for a box of Dr. Pierce's newest discovery, "Anurie," which I received by mail in tablet form. I soon got better and am convinced that this popular new medicine is good. I wish to recommend it to my neighbors and everybody suffering from such troubles.
E. M. J. SARGENT.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.
Up to this time, "Anurie" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.
Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anurie Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anurie" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and reconstructer for any one besides being the best blood-maker known.

TREAT CATARRH BY NATURE'S METHOD

Every Breath of Hyomei Carries Healing Medicated Air to the Infected Membrane.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it with sprays, lotions and the like. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would probably have said the only way to help catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with a simple preparation called Hyomei you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day successfully treat yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not give permanent relief, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained at any time for a trifling sum. It is more economical than all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only treatment known to us that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs. Newlin Drug Co. has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more they sell, the more convinced they are that they are perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not relieve.—Adv.

Fellow Citizens:

The management of Cherry's New Laundry believes thoroughly in La Grande, in-Union county and the state of Oregon. This is our home and La Grande people are our neighbors and our friends. We have no time nor inclination to seek the faults in our friends, if faults they should have, and we want to impress upon all our intense and lasting loyalty to our people. If they do not approve of the enforcement of our obsolete and dust-covered statute we will have no quarrel with them, for in attending to our own business we find we have ample work to do.
